Welcome to GA 2012!

“Justice GA” is the result of the work of myriad communities -- some within Unitarian Universalism and some in the local community.

The General Assembly Planning Committee (GAPC) has been gratified by the support and encouragement from The Arizona Immigration Ministry, the Accountability Group (representing historically marginalized Unitarian Universalists), the Board of Trustees, the UUA staff and our partners on the ground, including National Day Laborer Organizing Network (NDLON), Mi Familia Vota (MFV), Tonatierra Nahuacalli and Los Comités de Defensa del Barrio (CDB), Puente, Somos America, and Borderlinks .

It is the hope of the GAPC that you will find this GA a transformative experience, will feel your presence has made a positive difference in Phoenix and that you will be able to take home some of what you experience to your congregation and your community.

There will be opportunities for witness, service and learning. You are encouraged to listen to the stories of our partners and those involved in issues in Phoenix and Arizona. And you are encouraged to make the connection to the nation and where you live.

I especially want to hold up the Reflection Groups which will be available at this General Assembly. It is an opportunity to process your experience with a small group.

Yes, this GA is different. And yes, it is in some respects, the same. It will influence our lives together as we move into a future expanded by those outside our walls

Welcome to Justice GA.

¡Muchas Gracias!

The Unitarian Universalist Association wishes to express our sincere gratitude to the following organizations who contributed tremendous time, talent, consultation and goodwill toward making this 2012 Justice General Assembly an effective training and witness opportunity for human rights:

National Day Laborer Organizing Network (NDLON)

NDLON improves the lives of day laborers in the United States by unifying and strengthening its members and member organizations to be strategic and effective in developing leaders and mobilizing to protect and expand civil, labor and human rights. NDLON has a major campaign “Turning the Tide” aimed at ending the local police - federal Immigration and Custom Enforcement (ICE) collaboration policies like Secure Communities.

Mi Familia Vota (MFV)

Mi Familia Vota works to unite the Latino community and its allies to promote social and economic justice through increased civic participation. MFV does this through citizenship fairs, voter registration, GOTV efforts, trainings and issue forums. MFV works to promote citizenship and full civic participation in order to strengthen the voice and impact of the Latino community.

Tonatierra Nahuacalli and Los Comités de Defensa del Barrio (CDB)

Tonatierra is a Cultural Embassy of the Indigenous Peoples supporting local-global holistic indigenous community development initiatives in accord with the principles of Community Ecology and Self Determination. The CDBs are grassroots neighborhood organizations developed as a strategy to protect communities from racist treatment and attack and to mobilize to defeat racist policies and create community solidarity.

Puente

Puente is part of the global movement of migrant justice and human rights. A grassroots community-based group, Puente promotes justice, non-violence, interdependence and human dignity. A current campaign combats the mass detention and deportation system through education, organizing, and witness, including working to end the contract the US government has for immigration detention with the Pinal County Jail in Arizona which has one of the worst records of human rights abuses.

Somos America

Somos America is a community-based coalition of organizations established to mobilize for social justice and equal rights for immigrant communities in Arizona. The broad-based coalition of grassroots organizations, leaders, labor unions and students join together to advocate for immigration reform, to increase civic participation, to challenge injustice and the exploitation of workers and to promote political awareness and education within the Latino community.

Borderlinks

Borderlinks is a bi-national nonprofit educational organization at the U.S./Mexico border that focuses on cross-border relationship building opportunities, issues of immigration, community formation and development, and social justice in the borderlands between Mexico and the U.S. and beyond.

General Information

Accessibility Services

Persons with vision, hearing, mobility impairment or other special needs will find information about various kinds of assistance and accessibility at the Accessibility Table. The table is located on the third floor Pedestrian Bridge in the Phoenix Convention Center North Building.

Accountability Group

At its January 2011 meeting, the Board of Trustees approved the formation of a General Assembly 2012 Accountability Group. The group was charged with working with the board, the UUA administration, the GA Planning Committee, Arizona UU congregations, and external partners, particularly Arizona community groups, to fulfill the vision of a Justice GA as described in the 2010 GA business resolution. It was also charged with ensuring the participation of historically marginalized groups of people and forming alliances with local groups working on immigration issues.

Alcohol

No alcoholic beverages will be served or allowed at any Planning Committee sponsored event. All General Assembly events offering alcoholic beverages must also offer attractive non-alcoholic beverages with equal accessibility and prominence. No alcoholic beverages will be served to anyone under the age of 21. As a community we are committed to GA being a safe environment and all attendees are encouraged to support this goal. [See also Recovery Meetings.]

Annual Program Fund (APF)

The UUA Stewardship and Development staff group's booth is located outside Hall C in the Phoenix Convention Center North Building. We will be recognizing your exceptional generosity with ribbons celebrating Merit, Leadership and Honor, Honor 10+ and Honor 25+ year congregations. Please stop by so that we can thank you for your congregation's contributions to our Association.

Anti-Racism, Anti-Oppression and Multiculturalism

In 1994 and 1997 the General Assembly passed resolutions calling on the UUA to become an anti-racist, multicultural faith community, calling us on a Journey toward wholeness. In 1997 the General Assembly committed the UUA to work to remove barriers to persons with disabilities. Guided by our principles and in the spirit of these resolutions, all attendees are asked to be mindful of the ways racism, ableism and oppression impact our community and the larger community that is hosting our gathering. There are numerous opportunities through workshops and other programs to expand your awareness and deepen your understanding as together we strive to be a welcoming, inclusive and affirming community for all.

Banner Procession

General Assembly Opening Celebration will begin with a solemn procession of banners from hundreds of Unitarian Universalist (UU) congregations and organizations. Banner Carriers will gather at 7:00 pm in the lobby outside of Hall CD (The Justice GA Expo). Comfortable shoes are recommended. Please make arrangements for the security of purses or other valuables, as they may not be left in the staging area. Banners will not be hung in the convention center as they have been in past years.

Board of Trustees, UUA

The UUA is governed by a Board of Trustees consisting of District Trustees (elected by the various Districts) and at-large Trustees (elected by delegates to the General Assembly). The moderator, Gini Courter (elected by the General Assembly), presides at the General Assembly and at meetings of the Board of Trustees, and represents the Association on special occasions. The Financial Advisor and the UUA President (elected by the General Assembly) also sit on the Board.

The Nominating Committee is particularly interested in identifying qualified candidates who also have connections to, and understanding of, different ethnic communities, youth and young adults, and people with disabilities. The Nominating Committee seeks diversity on elected committees - gender, age, geography, race and sexual orientation are among other identities considered.

Right Relationship Team

One of the resources available to all attendees throughout GA is the Right Relationship Team. The Right Relationship Team exists to listen and engage with people who have experienced any form of oppression or identity based marginalization while at General Assembly. We know from experience at GAs past that we are still learning how to avoid perpetuating the biases of the larger culture amongst ourselves. GA is among the most diverse gatherings of UUs and in this setting we know we are going to make mistakes. People will make hurtful assumptions about other people based on their actual or perceived race, ethnicity, ability, age, gender, sexual orientation or other identities. When that happens, it our sincere hope that GA attendees will take it as an opportunity for learning how to engage in ways that are not oppressive. Should you need assistance naming your experience, speaking with others involved or exploring how to make amends, we are here to help. We will make a daily report about our collective experience during plenary sessions. When we believe it may be helpful, we will respectfully and anonymously share stories of hurtful assumptions that have been made so that we might all learn together how to grow more fully into right relationship.

Members of the team will be wearing lime green Right Relationship Team t-shirts. The Right Relationship Team will be sharing an office with Youth Caucus, which is located in room 228 A. We will be holding office hours there each day from 11:30 am – 1:30 pm. To reach a member of the team at any other time during GA, please feel free to stop one of us when you see us or call our number (617) 903-0778.

Safety

For safety reasons, we suggest the following common-sense precautions for any visit to an unfamiliar city. Remove your name badge when leaving the convention area. Walk “smart” - know your destination and the best way to reach it. Stay in populated areas; avoid alleys and short-cuts. Establish a “buddy” system with another attendee, especially at night. Build your awareness of unknown surroundings by reviewing information on the area, especially maps and guides.

Self-Care Tips

1. Take care of your body: get enough rest; eat well; stay hydrated. Remember this is the desert and temperatures are usually over 100 degrees with humidity under 8%. There will be plenty of resting areas throughout the Convention Center.
2. Pay attention to the signals your body is giving you: if you feel overwhelmed, take a time out. Talk to people you trust.
3. If you need to share your feelings: talk to your peers in your reflection group, seek out friends, your minister, members of your faith community, a General Assembly chaplain.
4. Sometimes you will carry complex feelings home with you: talk with adult members of your family, talk to members of your faith community, talk to your minister.
5. Seek other professional help, if appropriate.

Service of the Living Tradition

The Service of the Living Tradition, honoring the ministry of fellowshipped and credentialed UU religious leaders, will be held Friday 5:00 pm – 6:45 pm, in Hall AB of the Phoenix Convention Center North Building. It is open to all. See page 33 for more details.

Sunday Morning Worship

Join us for the largest annual gathering of UUs joining in worship. This powerful, communal worship experience will take place in Hall AB of the Phoenix Convention Center North Building on Sunday morning, June 24 at 9:00 am. Members of the public are welcome to attend Sunday Worship. See page 41 for additional information on the service.

Visiting Phoenix

Visitors should expect hot days, followed by somewhat cooler nights. The average temperature for the day is 104 F. The average temperature for the night is 78 F. There is little humidity in the desert so many people feel cooler, even when the temperature is higher. The biggest concerns about desert living are water loss and sun exposure. We highly recommend bringing sunscreen, a hat, a reusable water bottle and long-sleeved, light-weight, light-colored shirts. Keep cool and use common sense. Avoid hot foods and heavy meals. Drink plenty of fluids and replace salts and minerals in your body. Do not take salt tablets unless under medical supervision. Limit sun exposure during mid-day hours. When outdoors stay in the shade if possible. Do not leave infants, children or pets in parked cars. Dress infants and children in cool, loose clothing and shade their heads and faces with hats or an umbrella. Wear thick-soled footwear to avoid burns from the pavement. All service dogs should wear paw protection to avoid burns from the pavement. They should practice wearing boots prior to coming to GA. Let's make this Justice GA a wonderful and safe experience for all of us. For more detailed information on avoiding heat problems, visit tinyurl.com/gaheatguide.

Preparation and Training for Witness Events

Wednesday 12:30 pm - 3:30 pm
Phoenix Convention Center - 222 BC

Arizona Immigration Ministry (AZIM)

Public Witness is a cherished General Assembly tradition, and at this year's Justice GA we have planned a more ambitious public witness program than ever before. We will have a large, off-site Candlelight Vigil on Saturday evening, and other large witness events on Wednesday and Friday evenings. A designated support team is a part of any effective, responsible witness event. The Wednesday afternoon preparation will train a large support team who will receive assigned roles for the Candlelight Vigil, and most of those who are trained will also support the other witness events.

Wednesday's session will cover some general background on why and how people of faith engage in public witness, and will describe how events were designed for this Justice GA. However, most of the time the support team as a whole and in breakout groups will receive practical lessons. The support team will be prepared to:

- give directions at the witness events
- provide access to emergency assistance
- model de-escalation behavior if others challenge our witness
- distribute water and gather trash
- assist with accessibility concerns
- help UUs and partner groups become acquainted

The UUA District Presidents, the California Legislative Ministry's Spiritual Activist Leadership Training (SALT) group, and many interested individuals will be among the trainees. Younger and older adults wish to learn together. We invite you and others to join us, up to a capacity of 90.

Wherever we are from—we stand together as one! We stand on the side of love.

Speakers: Rev. Susan Frederick-Gray, Arizona Immigration Ministry
Rev. Peter Morales, President, Unitarian Universalist Association (UUA)
Salvador Reza and members of Los Comités de Defensa del Barrio
Pablo Alvarado, National Day Laborer Organizing Network

Stories from the Frontlines of the New America: Detention, Deportation and the Power of Democratic Resistance

Saturday 5:15 pm - 6:15 pm

Phoenix Convention Center - Hall AB

Maria Hinojosa

Maria Hinojosa believes we are living in a profound historic moment. Things are happening before our very eyes that are wreaking havoc with the core values of who we are as a country. As a journalist, Hinojosa has been able to see much of what is hidden in plain sight in the story of the detention and deportation of immigrants, both legal and not. What is of concern is not only the treatment of these human beings, but what this entire experience is doing to American citizens, their rights, due process and the core values of a free American society.

From NPR: For 25 years, Maria Hinojosa has helped tell America's untold stories and brought to light unsung heroes in America and abroad. She is the anchor and managing editor of NPR's Latino USA.

In April 2010, Hinojosa launched The Futuro Media Group with the mission to produce multi-platform, community-based journalism that respects and celebrates the cultural richness of the American experience. In addition, Hinojosa is the anchor of the Emmy-award winning talk show Maria Hinojosa: One-on-One from WGBH/La Plaza.

Hinojosa has reported hundreds of important stories—including the immigrant work camps in New Orleans after Hurricane Katrina, teen girl victims of sexual harassment on the job, and Emmy-award winning stories of the poor in Alabama—previously as a senior correspondent for PBS' Now and currently as a contributing correspondent on PBS' Need to Know.

Throughout her career Hinojosa has helped define the conversation about our times and our society with one of the most authentic voices in broadcast. As a reporter for NPR, Hinojosa told groundbreaking stories about youth and violence and immigrant communities. During her eight years as a CNN correspondent Hinojosa took viewers into communities that had never been shown on television. Her investigative journalism presses the powerful for the truth while giving voice to lives and stories that illuminate the world we live in.

Hinojosa has won top honors in American journalism including two Emmys, the Robert F. Kennedy Award for Reporting on the Disadvantaged, and the Edward R. Murrow Award from the Overseas Press Club for best documentary for her groundbreaking Child Brides: Stolen Lives. In 2009, Hinojosa was honored with an AWRIT Gracie Award for Individual Achievement as Best TV Correspondent. Three times over the past decade, Hinojosa has been named one of the 100 Most Influential Latinos in the United States by Hispanic Business magazine. She has received the Ruben Salazar Communications Award from the National Council of La Raza and was inducted into the "She Made It" Hall of Fame at the Paley Center/Museum of Television and Radio in a program that honors women trail blazers in the media.

Hinojosa is author of two books including a motherhood memoir, Raising Raul: Adventures Raising Myself and My Son.

Born in Mexico City, Hinojosa was raised in Chicago. She earned a Bachelor of Arts degree from Barnard College at Columbia University in New York.

Interfaith Witness for Human Rights: Candlelight Vigil at Tent City Jail

Saturday 7:45 pm - 11:00 pm

Arizona Immigration Ministry

Standing on the Side of Love—Stop the Incarceration and Human Rights Abuses of Migrants!

Over 2,000 people are being held at Sheriff Joe Arpaio's infamous Tent City Jail. Another 6,000 people are being held in other Maricopa County jails in the same areas, south of W. Durango St. To date over 427,000 inmates have gone through Tent City Jail where people are crowded together on wooden planks in broiling heat in the summer and freezing cold in the winter.

This facility represents the worst of a culture of cruelty perpetrated in the name of the U.S. government and is a key component of the federal system of mass detention and deportation. With the passage of SB1070 and copycat laws around the country, and the U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement 'Secure Communities program,' the climate of fear has reached crisis proportions.

We will Shine a Light on the human rights abuses here in Arizona and across the nation! We stand on the side of love.

Hear UUA President Rev. Peter Morales, United Church of Christ General Minister & President Rev. Geoffrey A. Black, other interfaith clergy, and local UU and human rights leaders.

Join in witness, prayer, song, and testimonials. Wear your Love shirts! Bring your water bottles!

Buses and accessible vans will arrive at the west entrance of the North Building on Third Street (see map p. 139) beginning at 7:45 p.m. and take us 6+ miles to the Candlelight Vigil on W. Durango St. Buses and accessible vans will take us back to the Convention Center, with the last bus and van arriving back before 11:00 pm.

CREF

You inspire us.

At TIAA-CREF, we are always impressed by the fine work of the Unitarian Universalist Association. It embraces diverse viewpoints while providing a warm, open, supportive community. Just as the Association helps its members on their spiritual journeys, we're proud to help them pursue their own goals and ideas of financial well-being. In fact, for nearly a century, TIAA-CREF has been helping people who give more to society get the most out of tomorrow's potential. It's a responsibility we take seriously — and, thanks to the UUA, we have an example that inspires us every day.

JUSTICE WORDS IN PROPHETIC POETRY

An educational workshop that will encourage and inspire Unitarian Universalists, organizers, and activists to use words of justice and equality in their own writings, especially poetry. These writings can be used to speak truth to power. I will inform our members on how I've used them in my own empowering writings about racism, immigration, and injustice.

SCHEDULED DAY & TIME: Friday, 06/22/2012 3:15 PM – 4:30 PM

FACILITY AND ROOM: Phoenix Convention Center - 122

Humanism is a progressive philosophy of life that, without supernaturalism, affirms our ability and responsibility to lead ethical lives of personal fulfillment that aspire to the greater good of humanity. The lifestance of Humanism—guided by reason, inspired by compassion, and informed by experience—encourages us to live life well and fully.

Economic Justice: A Moral Imperative for UU Humanists

*Friday, June 22, 10:45 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.
Convention Center - Room 120BC*

People with low income predictably suffer from substandard housing, poor nutrition, inability to afford medical care, lack of educational advantages, and the loss of a sense of self worth. UU Humanism defends the worth and dignity of every person. Working with others for economic justice is a Humanist moral imperative.

Our speaker is Rev. Dr. William R. Murry, minister emeritus of River Road UU Church, former president of Meadville/Lombard Theological School, and author of Becoming More Fully Human: Religious Humanism as a Way of Life.

HUUmanists Annual Meeting

Friday, June 22, 9:00 - 11:00 p.m. - Renaissance Phoenix Downtown Hotel

Join us for the annual meeting of the HUUmanists Association. We will hear reports on the past year's activities, receive financial reports, and elect officers and board members. Following the business meeting, there will be presentations on important economic justice issues by representatives of local groups, including the Secular Coalition for Arizona, an update on our forthcoming publications, and a progress report on our archives project. Refreshments will be provided, along with opportunities for rich conversation.

HUUmanists Exhibit Booth

GA Exhibit Hall

Our booth in the exhibition area will be organized around the theme of economic justice and we will share it with several local social justice groups including the Secular Coalition for Arizona. A special issue of our journal, Religious Humanism, focused on the Justice GA theme will be available at the booth, along with other publications and membership opportunities. Renew your membership! Buy a book!

Whose God Rules?

Is the United States a Secular Nation or a Theolegal Democracy?

Theolegal democracy defines a political system that allows public officials to use theology in its democratic process to shape law without instituting an official state religion. In Whose God Rules?, preeminent scholars debate theolegal theory, which describes the gray area between a secular legal system, where theology is dismissed as irrational and a threat to the separation of religion and state, and a theocracy, where a single religion determines all law. The United States is neither a secular nation nor a theocracy, leading scholars to ask whether the United States is a theolegal democracy. If so, whose God rules?

Here lies the power of the liberal way... in helping ourselves and others to see some of the possibilities inherent in viewpoints other than one’s own; in encouraging the free interchange of ideas; in welcoming fresh approaches to the problems of life; in urging the fullest, most vigorous use of critical self-examination.” ~~~~~ Adlai Stevenson “Every religious tradition on which we draw has a reverence for life. We are a part of an intricate web of life. Every tradition on which we draw teaches that the ultimate expression of our spirituality is our action. Deep spirituality leads to action in the world. A deep reverence for life, love of nature’s complex beauty and sense of intimate connection with the cosmos lead inevitably to a commitment to work for justice.” ~~~~~ Peter Morales

Mini-Assemblies

All business of the General Assembly is conducted in Plenary Sessions. Mini-Assemblies offer opportunities in small sessions for delegates to speak on issues, find out more about individual business items before a vote in plenary, and propose amendments to the business item or social witness statement. The Board of Trustees or the Commission on Social Witness may move amendments to business items as a result of discussion in Mini-Assemblies.

Thursday 3:15 pm - 4:30 pm Room 121

Mini-Assembly on proposed bylaw amendments

Thursday 5:00 pm - 6:15 pm Room 121

Mini-Assembly on the proposed resolution repudiating the Doctrine of Discovery

Bylaw Amendments

Proposed Bylaw Amendments will be discussed in Mini-Assemblies in room 213 D of the Phoenix Convention Center on Thursday at 10:45 a.m., 1:00 p.m., 2:45 p.m. and 4:30 p.m. After the Mini-Assemblies, the Board of Trustees consolidates results and formulates any amendments to be proposed.

Proposed Congregational Study/Action Issues

Five proposed Congregational Study/Action Issues (CSAIs) appear on the Final Agenda as a result of the 2012 Congregational Poll. Discussion of these CSAIs takes place in a workshop on Thursday at 10:30 a.m. in room 121 of the Phoenix Convention Center prior to voting in Plenary. One issue will be chosen for study and action during the coming four years.

2010 Congregational Study/Action Issue (Immigration as a Moral Issue)

No vote is taken this year on the Congregational Study/Action Issue (CSAI) that was chosen at the 2010 General Assembly. There will be a lecture on the topic offered Thursday at 3:15 p.m. in 227 AB of the Phoenix Convention Center.

Actions of Immediate Witness

Actions of Immediate Witness will not be considered at GA in 2012.

Budget Hearing

The UUA Finance Committee members and UUA officers conduct a hearing on the 2012 - 2013 budget Friday at 3:15 p.m. in Room 121 of the Phoenix Convention Center. This session offers an opportunity to ask questions about and consider changes to the budget. Motions on the budget must be submitted in writing in the GA Office (across from Hall D of the Phoenix Convention Center North Building) by 5:00 p.m. on Saturday, for consideration Sunday.

Living the Democratic Process

Purpose

GENERAL ASSEMBLY: A MEETING OF CONGREGATIONS is an annual opportunity for delegates from member congregations to affirm, promote, and practice the democratic process while conducting the business of the Association.

RULES OF PROCEDURE are adopted at the start of the Assembly. They are printed (as proposed but not necessarily as adopted) in the GA Agenda. The Rules of Procedure are designed to help the delegates effectively represent their congregations.

Speaking in Plenary

Before speaking you must be recognized by the Moderator, and to be recognized you must be at a microphone. The Moderator recognizes you by referring to the microphone ("I recognize the delegate at the Pro microphone...").

Any DELEGATE may speak; non-delegates need the consent of the Moderator or vote of the Assembly to admit the speaker to the floor. (This happens only rarely.) Once recognized, identify yourself (name and congregation from which you are a delegate), e.g., "I'm Chris Doe from Rip Roaring Congregation of Great City, Ohio."

BE SUCCINCT and remember you have only two minutes. You may speak on a motion only once as long as others wish to speak.

Speaking time is limited. Do not speak if your point has already been made by another speaker. Be respectful of other delegates by only speaking when you have something important to add to the discussion.

There are four microphones: PRO, CON, PROCEDURE and AMENDMENT

- ♦ To speak in favor - go to the PRO mike.
- ♦ To speak against - go to the CON mike.
- ♦ To make an amendment – go to the AMENDMENT Table for assistance.
- ♦ To raise a procedural issue, go to the PROCEDURE mike.

PROCEDURAL questions are limited to:

- ♦ Parliamentary inquiry
- ♦ Points of order and information
- ♦ Question of privilege
- ♦ Motions to extend or limit time of debate, change the order of business, recess, or adjourn.

TIME USED ON PROCEDURAL ISSUES IS INCLUDED in the time set for debating the item on the floor. Procedural issues must be raised at the Procedure microphone. They take precedence over discussion.

The AMENDMENT mike is used only for making an amendment that has first been processed at the Amendment Table.

Debate

THERE MUST BE 15 MINUTES OF DISCUSSION ALLOWED ON THE MOTION AS PRINTED (or as presented by the Board of Trustees or Commission on Social Witness) before an amendment may be proposed unless the Rules of Procedure specify otherwise. If no one is standing at a microphone to speak on the motion as presented, this time may be shortened. The Moderator alternates recognizing speakers at PRO and CON microphones.

AFTER 15 MINUTES OF DEBATE, AMENDMENTS MAY BE PRESENTED. Debate takes place on each amendment until it is resolved. Only one amendment may be presented at a time. (You can't amend an amendment.)

An amendment may be to insert new words, delete words, or to delete and insert. Each amendment may cover only one subject. An amendment may not change a non-business resolution into a Business Resolution; for example, you can't add language to an Action of Immediate Witness that requires specific action from congregations or the UUA Board or staff. Before an amendment may be presented to the delegates, it must be presented in writing at the Amendment table next to the Amendment mike (see also "Mini-Assembly" below).

Some motions must be filed prior to the opening of a session, particularly ones concerning the BUDGET. See Rules of Procedure in the Final Agenda for deadlines and place for filing them.

Motions of Amendment to items on the Agenda, Actions on Reports, etc., may be made as part of the debate. Be careful that your motion does not change the meaning so much that it is a substitute rather than an amendment. At times, you may make a substitute motion but must recognize it as such.

Voting

Delegates vote by:

- ◆ Voice (call for ayes and nays)
- ◆ Uncounted show of voting cards
- ◆ Counted show of voting cards
- ◆ Written ballot

The Moderator is responsible for determining whether a motion passed or failed. A delegate who disagrees with the Moderator's determination may come to the procedural microphone and ask for a counted vote. At least 99 other delegates must support the request to force the counted vote.

It is crucial that you bring your voting card with you to each Plenary Session. Voting cards are difficult to replace, if lost, and you cannot vote without your card. As a delegate, you may not give your voting card to anyone else to use.

Mini-Assembly

A Mini-Assembly is an opportunity for delegates to propose amendments to resolutions on the final agenda and to the proposed Actions of Immediate Witness admitted to the final agenda. (Note: Actions of Immediate Witness will not be considered at the 2012 General Assembly.) It's an opportunity to discuss the proposed amendments, and, for the Statement of Conscience, to work collaboratively with other delegates to draft amendments. (Note: There is no proposed Statement of Conscience on the Agenda in 2012.) Mini-Assemblies save Plenary time and permit freer debate than plenaries do. It is not possible to offer an amendment to a business resolution, bylaw change, rule change, or social witness statement during plenary debate if it was not submitted for consideration at the appropriate Mini-Assembly.

There is a Mini-Assembly scheduled for the rule changes listed on the final agenda. All Mini-Assemblies are listed in the program.

After a Mini-Assembly and before voting in a Plenary Session, the Board of Trustees may incorporate proposed amendments into a Business Resolution or a Bylaw and the Commission on Social Witness may incorporate proposed amendments into a Statement of Conscience or an Action of Immediate Witness. For Statements of Conscience, the Commission on Social Witness is required to report all amendments to the GA delegates. The Commission on Social Witness can prioritize the amendments, including the order of their presentation at the amendment microphone in Plenary. If you wish to modify the Statement of Conscience, plan to attend the entire Mini-Assembly and work collaboratively with other delegates to suggest amendments.

Budget Hearing

At the Budget Hearing questions may be answered, but no motions may be made. Motions to modify the budget must be made in writing by the time announced in the Rules of Procedure. Budget motions, if adding funds to an item or proposing new spending, must specify which other specific categories are to be reduced. See Rule G-10.1.4.

Statements of Conscience

Note: There is no proposed Statement of Conscience on the Agenda in 2012.

Based on feedback from the Mini-Assembly, the Commission on Social Witness may recommend that the delegates change the length of time the statement is debated before amendments are in order.

Debate is limited to 12 minutes per amendment.

Actions of Immediate Witness

Note: Actions of Immediate Witness will not be considered at the 2012 General Assembly.

Sometimes significant actions, events, or developments occur that delegates may wish to address immediately. The process for admitting Actions of Immediate Witness to the agenda means that congregations commonly have no opportunity to consider and discuss them in advance of General Assembly, so care should be taken to only submit Actions of Immediate Witness that could not otherwise be accommodated in the Congregational Study/Action Issue process. Consult Article IV, Section 4.16 (b) (1) of the UUA Bylaws for the criteria for an Action of Immediate Witness.

HOW MANY ACTIONS OF IMMEDIATE WITNESS MAY BE ADMITTED TO THE AGENDA? No more than six.

HOW CAN A DELEGATE PLACE AN ACTION OF IMMEDIATE WITNESS ON THE AGENDA? Pick up the required cover sheet and petition form for signatures at the Commission on Social Witness (CSW) booth in the Exhibit Hall. Submit a copy of the AIW at the CSW booth for posting by 5:00 p.m. on Thursday. Then begin collection of signatures from other delegates. Submit the AIW with the required number of delegate signatures to the CSW at the GA Office by 5:00 p.m. on Friday. See the cover sheet for directions, requirements, and deadlines.

WHAT HAPPENS THEN? The Commission will review the AIWs to determine if they meet the criteria for an AIW. The Commission will select no more than six from among those submitted which meet the criteria for an AIW. The Commission on Social Witness screens proposed Actions of Immediate Witness according to the criteria of grounding, fit and opportunity as well as significance, timeliness and specificity (see bylaw section 4.16). Preference is given to proposed Actions of Immediate Witness that emerge from a documented group process. These will be submitted to delegates for admission to the Agenda at the Saturday morning Plenary Session. After consideration of proposed amendments at a Mini-Assembly, each AIW will be voted on by the delegates for adoption by the General Assembly at the Sunday morning Plenary Session.

To Get Your Questions Answered

PLAY FAIR. The guidelines that follow are not subterfuges for you to use to get around time limits. They are designed to make you more knowledgeable and effective.

POINT OF INFORMATION. Raise a point of information when you want to get information, not give it. A delegate may request "Point of Information" from any microphone. It's exactly that: a request for information such as "On what are we voting?" or "What is the cost to the UUA of this motion?" Your question cannot be a statement, and no preface except your identification is permitted.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE. Raise a point of personal privilege when your ability to do business is being hampered. Any delegate may request a Point of Personal Privilege. You go to the procedural microphone and say "Point of Personal Privilege" and wait to be recognized by the Moderator. After recognition, identify yourself and state your point (no statement, no argument or preface, just the bare request), such as "It is not possible to hear from the pro microphone" or "Our section was not counted."

POINT OF PROCEDURE. You use this for questioning parliamentary procedure. A delegate may interrupt debate by going to the procedural microphone and saying "Point of Procedure" and wait to be recognized. A sample point is "Is this not an amendment to an amendment?" or "Was a vote taken?"

NEED INFORMATION? Have a question about the status of the Agenda, a business matter, procedures, etc.? Ask a member of the Board of Trustees. They will be identifiable on the floor of the Assembly during each Plenary Session.

DO YOU HAVE AN AMENDMENT? ARE YOU UNHAPPY WITH WORDING? Time constraints preclude more than two or three amendments to an item being considered in plenary. Preliminary work on agenda items is completed in the Mini-Assembly.

Committee of the Whole

When the Assembly is debating a particularly complex or difficult question (there may be two, three, or four alternate versions or ideas) the Moderator may decide, or a delegate may move, that the Assembly move into a "Committee of the Whole" to consider the subject. If done, the Rules of Procedure are eased and the Assembly now acts as a committee.

- ♦ A person other than the Moderator may occupy the Chair.
- ♦ Discussion may take place without motions.
- ♦ The only motions allowable are motions to amend, adopt, or reconsider.
- ♦ Non-binding straw votes may be taken.
- ♦ The formality of pro/con microphones is somewhat relaxed.
- ♦ You may speak only once on a topic in a discussion unless no one else wishes to speak.
- ♦ Time limits are relaxed or do not exist unless the "Committee" sets them.

Once the Committee of the Whole has decided what it wants to do, a delegate moves that the Committee of the Whole "rise and report" specifying the agreed-upon result. The Moderator takes the Chair, and the Plenary Session of the General Assembly is again in session. The motion formulated in the Committee is reported and vote is taken immediately, without debate or possibility of amendment.

Adjourn

RULE 1. ORDER OF BUSINESS

Consideration of and action upon items must proceed in the order set forth in the Final Agenda unless during the meeting that order is changed by majority vote.

RULE 2. MEANS OF VOTING

So long as a quorum is present, action on any question, unless the Bylaws otherwise provide, will be decided in the first instance by an uncounted show of hands/voting cards. If the Moderator wishes a counted vote or if a delegate requests it and the Moderator determines that 99 other delegates join in the request, the vote must be counted. Except for Congregational Study/Action Issues (Rule 11), no vote will be taken by written ballot unless the delegates order a written ballot by a two-thirds vote. Provided a quorum is present at each Plenary Session, all matters submitted to a vote of the delegates will be determined by the number of votes cast by delegates present and voting on the matter. The required proportion of votes cast by delegates to approve any action or resolution will be as set forth in the Bylaws or Rules or these Rules of Procedure.

RULE 3. MINUTES

The Board of Trustees will approve the minutes of the General Assembly Plenary Sessions, which will be prepared by the Recording Secretary in consultation with Legal Counsel.

RULE 4. PRESENTATION OF ITEMS

The provisions of Rule 5 notwithstanding, the Board of Trustees and/or the Commission on Social Witness will, at their discretion, move the item as printed on the Final Agenda or move an amended version of the item.

RULE 5. AMENDMENTS

Except for clarifying amendments, amendments to the main motion and motions to refer, table or to call the question will not be in order until there has been at least fifteen minutes of debate, if that much is needed, on the merits of the main question as moved. Amendments to a business resolution, a bylaw, a rule, or a proposed amendment must be submitted for consideration at the appropriate Mini-Assembly in order to be offered in the plenary session. No amendment or other change to any motion under consideration will be entertained unless it is submitted in writing on forms prescribed by the Moderator, who may, however, waive this requirement.

RULE 6. TIME LIMITS

The following time limits are imposed on all business transacted by the Assembly except as otherwise provided in these Rules for Actions of Immediate Witness, Congregational Study/Action Issues, and UUA Statement of Conscience. (Note: Actions of Immediate Witness will not be considered at the 2012 General Assembly; there is no proposed UUA Statement of Conscience on the Agenda in 2012.) If, however, there is no objection from the floor, the Moderator may grant minor extensions of time. Any time limits imposed by this rule may be extended by a two-thirds vote.

- a) No person may speak on any motion for more than two minutes, and not more than once, so long as there are others who have not spoken who desire the floor, except that persons having special information may, with the permission of the Moderator, reply to questions.
- b) Thirty minutes is allowed for discussion of any proposed bylaw or rule amendment, resolution, or action on a report that is on or admitted to the Final Agenda. Whenever possible, the discussion time will be equally divided between proponents and opponents through equitable recognition of speakers at microphones designated Pro and Con and off-site delegates.
- c) A motion to call the previous question on the main motion shall not be in order if there are potential speakers at both Pro and Con microphones or in the off-site queue and the original or extended time for discussion has not expired. A motion to call the previous question on a motion to amend the main motion is in order after 10 minutes of discussion concerning the amendment.

RULE 7. MICROPHONES

- a) Pro and Con Microphones. Usage of the microphones designated "Pro" or "Con" and off-site "Pro" and "Con" queues is limited to statements in support of or in opposition to motions.
- b) Amendment Microphone. Usage of the microphone or off-site queue designated "Amendment" is limited to presenters of motions and members of the Board of Trustees who may use the microphone only for:
 - 1) making an amendment to a main motion or another amendment, provided the motion is otherwise in order;

Rules of Procedure

- 2) using such additional time remaining under Rule 6, if any, to speak in support of the amendment; and
 - 3) stating the Board of Trustees' position at the outset of debate on those items on the Final Agenda on which the Board takes a position.
- c) Procedure Microphone. All other matters must be brought to the Procedure microphone or queue.

RULE 8. COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

At any stage of the meeting, the Moderator, without a vote of the Assembly, at his or her discretion from time to time may order the meeting resolved into a Committee of the Whole or reconvened in regular Session. While the meeting is acting as a Committee of the Whole, the following Special Rule will apply:

The Presiding Officer, without a vote of the Committee of the Whole, may permit reconsideration of any action taken by the Committee of the Whole and other departures of the Rules of Parliamentary Procedure if it appears to him or her that the work of the Committee of the Whole will thereby be expedited.

When the General Assembly is reconvened, the only motion in order will be to adopt the recommendation of the Committee of the Whole. A motion recommended by the Committee of the Whole will not be subject to amendment, debate, or delay.

RULE 9. BUDGET MOTION

Any motion concerning the 2012 - 2013 budget that is to be made at the time provided for such motions during the formal business sessions must be filed in writing at the General Assembly Office not later than 5:00 p.m. Saturday. All such motions must provide for reductions in specific other categories of spending equivalent to the increase in spending recommended in the motion. Adoption of the motion requires a two-thirds vote.

RULE 10. RESOLUTIONS AND ACTIONS NOT ON THE FINAL AGENDA

A Resolution or Action not on the Final Agenda may be considered only under the following circumstances:

- a) under Bylaw Section 4.16, which permits the addition of Actions of Immediate Witness to the Agenda and consideration of non-substantive resolutions; (Note: Actions of Immediate Witness will not be considered at this General Assembly.)

- b) under Bylaw Section 4.16(c), which permits the addition of Responsive Resolutions in response to a substantive portion of a report by an officer or committee reporting to the Assembly.

The author of a Responsive Resolutions must notify the Moderator in writing of the title and content of his/her Responsive Resolution as soon as it is practical to do so, but not later than 6:00 p.m. on Saturday for Responsive Resolutions based on reports delivered in plenary sessions 1-4. A resolution submitted to the Commission on Social Witness for consideration as an Action of Immediate Witness may not be submitted as a Responsive Resolution.

RULE 11. CONGREGATIONAL STUDY/ACTION ISSUES

Pursuant to Bylaw Section 4.12(a): In a year in which Congregational Study/Action Issue(s) are proposed, up to five Congregational Study/Action Issues may be presented to the General Assembly. A sponsor of a Congregational Study/ Action Issue determined by the Commission on Social Witness to be eligible for consideration will have two minutes to speak in support of obtaining the vote necessary to be selected as the Congregational Study/Action Issue referred for study. Following the presentation by the sponsors for all Congregational Study/Action Issues eligible for consideration, time will be provided for up to four additional statements of support for each Congregational Study/Action Issue. Persons wishing to speak shall use the microphone or off-site queue designated for the Congregational Study/ Action Issue for which he/she advocates.

After debate concerning the proposed Congregational Study/Action Issues, a written or electronic ballot, prepared by the Commission on Social Witness, will be used to receive the vote of the delegates for which one of the Congregational Study/Action Issues will be referred for study. The Congregational Study/Action Issue receiving the highest number of votes among all Congregational Study/Action Issues shall be referred for study providing, however, that if no Congregational Study/Action Issue receives a majority of the votes cast, then a second vote shall be taken between the two Issues receiving the highest number of votes cast in the initial election.

RULE 12. UUA STATEMENT OF CONSCIENCE

In a year in which a UUA Statement of Conscience is proposed, one hour will be allowed for debate. (Note: there is no proposed UUA Statement of Conscience on the Agenda in 2012.)

The Commission on Social Witness may recommend for delegate approval by majority vote an amount of time for the Statement to be debated before amendments are in order. If no such recommendation is proposed and approved, no amendment shall be in order unless there has been at least 30 minutes of debate, if that much is needed, on the merits of the proposed UUA Statement of Conscience.

A motion to amend a proposed UUA Statement of Conscience is not in order in the Plenary Session unless it first was presented to a Mini-Assembly as described in Rule 4.12.4. Up to twelve minutes will be allowed for the debate of an amendment.

The Commission on Social Witness will have the discretion to prioritize the amendments including their presentation at the amendment microphone in Plenary.

RULE 13. ACTIONS OF IMMEDIATE WITNESS

(Note: Actions of Immediate Witness will not be considered at the 2012 General Assembly.)

- a) The proposed Action of Immediate Witness must be in writing.
- b) A copy for posting at the Commission on Social Witness booth in the Exhibit Hall must be delivered to the booth in the exhibit area no later than 5:00 p.m., Thursday, so that proposals may be made available for viewing prior to the filing deadline.
- c) The copy to be filed must have attached signatures showing the requisite delegate support specified in Bylaw Section 4.16(b)(2) and must be filed with the Commission on Social Witness in the General Assembly Office by no later than 5:00 p.m. Friday.
- d) The Commission on Social Witness may provide a summary of the Actions of Immediate Witness that meet the criteria for admission to the agenda during Friday morning's plenary and seek a sense of the meeting.

- e) Each sponsor of an Action of Immediate Witness determined by the Commission on Social Witness to be eligible to be considered for possible admission to the agenda under Bylaw Section 4.16(b) will have two minutes to speak in support of obtaining a vote supporting the admission of the action to the agenda.
- f) The sponsor will move admission at a Plenary Session scheduled before vote on the action is to occur and when called upon to do so by the Moderator.
- g) The motion to admit is not debatable and requires a two-thirds vote of support.
- h) A motion to amend an Action of Immediate Witness is not in order in the Plenary Session unless it first was presented to a Mini-Assembly, as described in Bylaw Section 4.16(b)(4).
- i) Up to twenty minutes will be allowed for debate, if needed, on each proposed Action of Immediate Witness. No amendment shall be in order unless there have been at least twelve minutes of debate, if that much is needed, on the merits of the proposed Action of Immediate Witness.
- j) Debate and voting on adoption of an Action of Immediate Witness will occur during Plenary on Sunday morning. Adoption must be by two-thirds vote, as specified in Bylaw Section 4.16(b)(5).

RULE 14. AMENDING THE RULES OF PROCEDURE

These Rules of Procedure will be adopted by a two-thirds vote and may be amended, suspended, or repealed during the course of the Assembly only by a two-thirds vote, except for the preceding Rule 9, the amendment, suspension, or repeal of which requires a four-fifths vote.

RULE 15. ADJOURNMENT

The final business session of the 2012 General Assembly will be adjourned no later than 6:00 p.m. on Sunday, June 24.

Five Proposed Congregational Study/Action Issues (CSAIs) appear on the Final Agenda as a result of the 2012 Congregational Poll. Discussion of these CSAIs takes place in a workshop on Thursday at 10:30 am in room 121 of the Phoenix Convention Center prior to voting in the Friday Plenary session. One issue will be chosen for study and action during the coming four years.

CSAI 1 Climate Action and Adaptation Plans: Why Greenhouse Gases and their Effects Matter to Us

1 Issue

2 Effects of Global Climate Change (GCC) now threaten our lives, property, health, and our children's futures. We
3 must simplify people's united support behind a single campaign for policy change on greenhouse gases; and
4 inform ourselves, and others, about practical new Climate Action and Adaptation Plans, which lay out imaginative 5 lifestyle change.

6 Grounding in Unitarian Universalism

7 Our Seventh Principle calls us to respect the interdependent web. Our Fifth Principle honors the democratic 8 process. Heeding the guidance of science, as articulated in our Fifth Source, we submit this proposal standing on 9 the shoulders of the many Unitarian Universalists (UUs) who act responsibly on Global Climate Change.

10 Topics for Congregational Study

- 11 • Study of state, regional and local Climate Action and Adaptation Plans.
- 12 • What recommendations in the plans are/are not funded and/or implemented?
- 13 • How can planned adaptation measures be used to motivate more individuals to act on the personal, 14 local, and federal level to reduce greenhouse gas emissions?
- 15 • If your congregation does educational outreach on GCC, and you could email a link to all audience
16 members afterward that would result in their effective advocacy on GCC with just two clicks of a 17 mouse, what would the one or two sentence advocacy message say?
- 18 • Should UU's participate in or support lawsuits that hold governmental bodies responsible for the 19 harmful effects of greenhouse gases?

20 Possible Congregational/District Actions

- 21 • Congregational: Select an effective national advocacy campaign for the reduction of carbon emissions, 22 and facilitate the participation of congregants and others in your community.
- 23 • Congregational: Educating the congregation and the surrounding community on the causality link 24 between manmade greenhouse gas emissions and their local effects.
- 25 • Congregational: Taking up local issues related to flooding, destruction from extreme weather events,
26 drought related water supply issues, and other GCC effects in Congregation Based Community
27 Organizations with which the congregation is affiliated.
- 28 • District: Synchronizing the District legislative Agenda with the legislative agendas of state and local 29 governments implementing Climate Action plans.
- 30 • District: Informing congregations of cross-jurisdictional Climate Action/Adaptation measures that affect 31 them.

47 Additional Information

48 This Congregational Study/ Action Issue (CSAI) Proposal is submitted in the hope of creating a greater capacity for 49 UU congregations to take action on Global Climate Change.

50 I. Unitarian Universalist Involvement In the Issue

51 Unitarian Universalists have been involved in Global Climate change for more than two decades. The 52 2006 Statement of Conscience on Global Warming defined many ways that UU's could take individual,
 53 congregational, or group advocacy action to reduce greenhouse gases, and many UU's have made 54 significant lifestyle changes and participated in many advocacy campaigns as a result of the guidance of 55 that SOC.

56 After the 2010 General Assembly, a UU Climate Change and Environmental Justice Action Coalition was 57 formed, including representatives from UU Ministry for Earth (UUMFE), the Unitarian Universalist
 58 Association (UUA), the UU State Advocacy Networks, the Unitarian Universalist Service Committee
 59 (UUSC), and the Unitarian Universalist United Nations Office (UU-UNO). If this CSAI Proposal is accepted
 60 for study, our democratic CSAI Social Witness process could inform the future efforts of this coalition.

61 Currently, it is possible to link to Advocacy Action campaigns on Global Climate Change through the 62 UUA website, the UU-UNO website, the UUMFE website, and the UUSC website website. Information
 63 on Global Climate Change is available through state UU Legislative ministries as well. Most of what is 64 available on these websites is educational and informative. Some of what is available is direction to 65 other websites where direct action can be taken, and some of what is available contains direct links to 66 active electronic petitions and campaigns.

67 On the UUA website, there is a sample letter for Climate Change Advocacy and a script for telephone
 68 advocacy on climate change. The UUA Social Justice Page links to the Environmental Justice Page. The 69 Environmental Justice Page has a Global Warming/Climate Change link. As of the May 26, 2011 update
 70 there were no Advocacy Action links on this page.

71 The UU-UNO Climate Portal has Action Alerts accessible on the home page. Unfortunately, if you click
 72 on the "What we can do-mitigation" link, rather than scrolling down to the Action Alerts, then the 73 electronic petition is missed. If, however, you make it to the Action Alerts, there is a succinct electronic 74 petition to sign and submit.

75 The UUSC website home page links to an Environmental Justice page, on which there is a "What you 76 can do" link. Action listed on this page includes: registering for UUSC's e-Community, signing up for 77 Environmental Justice News, Getting Information about your water, and considering becoming a Green 78 Sanctuary under the UUMFE program.

79 The UUMFE website has a "Take Action" tab on the home page, which brings up a page with a menu on 80 the left. This menu has a Global Warming/Climate link. The areas of action listed are: We can reduce 81 our carbon footprints, We can learn, We can provide ways for individuals to take action by using 82 resources from the First Unitarian Church of Portland, Oregon, and We can start a small group 83 conversation.

84 UU State Advocacy Networks have been established to facilitate UU advocacy. Issues are selected at 2
 85 year intervals in California. In Florida, Climate Change is a core issue of the UULMF. This website
 86 informs us that laws to address this issue have been sidetracked and are still being opposed nationally and locally, and that both state and federal legislators need to hear about the public's concerns. The Link to their Climate Change page has links to informational climate change resources: The US EPA, Wikipedia, Oceana website, UUMFE, Florida Climate Change, NASA's Goddard Spaceflight Center, Mother Nature Network, Union of Concerned Scientists, Environment News Service, Thousand Friends of Florida, Nature Conservancy, National Sierra Club, Sierra Club Florida Chapter, and the IPCC. As of July 12, 2011 there were no links to Action petitions or campaigns on the UUMLF site.

II. The Lawsuit Filed by Jim Hansen

Jim Hansen filed a lawsuit against the White House for failing to address Global Warming.

III. State and Local Climate Action and Adaption Plans

Meaningful Global Climate Change policy has been stalled at the federal level, but many states and localities have adopted plans with aggressive mitigation goals, and sustainability as a guiding principle. The policy recommendations in the state Climate Action Plans are in line with Unitarian Universalist values, and reflect the thinking expressed in our 2006 Statement of Conscience on Global Warming. Advocacy is needed to move from policy recommendations to funded and implemented public policy.

A. State Climate Action Plans:

The EPA website states that: "A climate Action Plan lays out a strategy, including specific policy recommendations, that a state will use to address climate change and reduce its greenhouse gas emissions." The following states have completed a climate change action plan: AK, AZ, AR, CA, CO, CT, FL, IA, IL, ME, MD, MA, MI, MN, MT, NC, NH, NJ, NM, NV, NY, OR, PA, RI, SC, UT, VA, VT, WA, WI, All States.

B. State and Regional Climate Action Initiatives:

The Pew Center has researched state and regional climate policy initiatives. Several Regional initiatives are detailed on this site. Effective advocacy at the state and local level requires information about the Climate Action Plans and Adaptation Plans enacted by the governmental bodies in states and localities in which we live and worship, knowledge about which recommendations are being implemented, and updates on which recommendations have not been implemented. Advocates also require knowledge about which recommendations have or have not been funded, and the public process to advocate for movement from policy recommendations to public policy. City and county Climate Action Plans, Adaptation Plans, and Mitigation plans will require congregations to do local research.

C. Climate Action Plans for cities and counties in which congregants of The Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Boca Raton reside

Palm Beach County has a Climate Action Plan under development in conjunction with Broward County, Miami Dade County and Martin County

1. Palm Beach County Unified Local Mitigation Strategy: This document assigns risk, vulnerability, and financial loss dollar values to parcels of land and buildings throughout Palm Beach County. The procedures for prioritizing mitigation efforts and rebuilding projects from hazards of all kinds using a cost benefit analysis are spelled out in this document. It lists sea level rise in response to global climate and local tectonic changes as a flood hazard.
2. Boynton Beach Climate Action Plan
3. Delray Beach Climate Action Plan is not yet developed. Their Green Task Force is working on this issue.
4. Boca Raton has a commitment to sustainability found on page CP-3 of this document, but no Climate Action Plan.
5. City of Lake Worth Climate Action Plan is in draft form.

Families, Population, and the Environment

132 Issue

133 The world's human population continues to grow. Yet millions live in poverty and many, both young and old, have 134 been abandoned. What moral responsibility do people have to each other and to future generations? We ask for a 135 new conversation about families and family planning, population growth, and the environment.

136 Grounding in Unitarian Universalism

137 Unitarian Universalists bring human rights concerns and environmental protection concerns together. One of our 138 Association's principles calls attention to the interdependent web of existence. Other principles affirm the worth 139 and dignity of every individual and the need for justice for all.

140 Topics for Congregational Study

- 141 • Are there too many people in the world? Listen to different points of view. Some leaders say that the 142 human population can be much increased. Should there be limits to population growth? If so, what 143 programs do you propose and support?
- 144 • Discuss the "carrying capacity" and "sustainable development" concepts.
- 145 • Consider family planning, access to health care services, sexuality education, marriage and adoption
 146 rights, the empowerment of girls and women, and related subjects. What moral guidelines, if any, should 147 guide the population issues discussion?
- 148 • Family structures are changing. As you discuss families and family planning, consider the needs of single 149 parents, adoptive parents and guardians, same-gender couples, and others who have sometimes been 150 overlooked in "family values" discussions. How can congregations be helpful?
- 151 • Life expectancy is increasing. How can congregations care for an aging population?
- 152 • Consider the role of women and girls in population management and sustainable development. Review
 153 the work of the United Nations since its 1994 International Conference on Population and Development.
- 154 • Discuss the significance of the Millennium Development Goals and the Earth Charter.
- 155 • Does the world exist for humanity alone? What moral responsibility, if any, do human beings have to 156 protect biodiversity?

157 Possible Congregational/District Actions

- 158 • Support Planned Parenthood and reproductive and sexual health services in North America and in other 159 parts of the world.
- 160 • Support the Our Whole Lives (OWL) program and similar programs for sexuality education.
- 161 • Review the "family values" discussion. Discuss the needs of different kinds of families. Develop 162 congregational programs that can assist families with adoption, parenting, and care for elders.
- 163 • Work for marriage and adoption rights for same-gender couples.
- 164 • Reclaim Father's Day and Mother's Day and celebrate these holidays in appropriate ways. Honor 165 biodiversity and the teaching of evolution with religious activities.
- 166 • Expand your understanding of "stewardship." Become a Green Sanctuary congregation. Demonstrate the 167 appropriate use of water, energy, and other resources. Lead by example on a crowded planet.

179 Additional Information

180 Are there too many people in the world?

181 On October 31, 2011, the world's human population reached seven billion, according to the United Nations
182 Population Fund. In 1930, the world's human population was an estimated two billion. So the size of the human 183 population has more than tripled in about eighty years and the human population continues to grow. High birth 184 rates, in some parts of the world, combined with decreased infant mortality rates and increased life expectancy, in 185 many regions, help to explain population growth during recent decades.

186 There is little disagreement about the size of the human population, but the question remains, "Are there too
187 many people in the world?" It's possible that the world can support a human population of ten billion, or fifteen
188 billion, or even more. However, many natural resources, such as water and fossil fuels, are finite. If worldwide oil
189 production peaks during the next thirty years, while the human population is expanding and the developing 190 nations are industrializing, the results may be cataclysmic. The Earth has a limited supply of fresh water and 191 increased competition for water can also produce social conflict.

192 Each year, an estimated 38% of the pregnancies in the world are unplanned, according to the Alan Guttmacher
193 Institute. Unwanted pregnancies often produce unwanted children, and, in the poorest regions of the world,
194 unwanted children are often abandoned and easily exploited and abused. UNICEF can only estimate that there are 195 "tens of millions" of street children in the world. Abandoned children often become criminals, child soldiers, 196 factory or farm workers, or prostitutes.

197 The world's human population is aging. Life expectancy is increasing in many nations. When available, data shows
198 that poverty among older persons is higher than for young adults. As North America's population grows older, the 199 question in many congregations and communities is becoming, "How do we care for people who are past the age 200 of 60?"

201 The pollution of the oceans, the loss of wildlife habitat and biodiversity, and the climate change problem, have all
202 been documented by agencies like the United Nations Environment Programme. The World Wide Fund for Nature
203 estimates that 10-30% of the mammals, birds, and amphibians on planet Earth are threatened with extinction,
204 because of human activities. Discussions about human population growth often focus on human concerns.
205 However, there is a need, also, to ask the question, "What moral responsibility, if any, do human beings have to 206 other species and to the whole of the natural world?"

207 In 1994, the United Nations coordinated the International Conference on Population and Development in Cairo,
208 Egypt. What developed at the Cairo conference changed the population growth discussion for many participants.
209 United Nations reports noted that birth rates decline, and family life improves, as women gain more control over 210 their lives, and as they rise above the poverty level. In the year 2000, the Millennium Development Goals and the 211 Earth Charter appeared. Both statements express concern for social justice and the whole community of life. The 212 Earth Charter was endorsed by the General Assembly in 2002.

213 The Unitarian Universalist United Nations Office represents Unitarian Universalists at the United Nations.

214 The Religious Coalition for Reproductive Choice includes a variety of member groups, including the Unitarian
215 Universalist Women's Federation. The Religious Coalition looks beyond the abortion debate to seek solutions to 216 pressing problems such as unintended pregnancy, the continued spread of HIV/AIDS, inadequate health care and 217 health insurance, and the severe reduction in reproductive health care services in the United States. The Religious 218 Coalition supports access to sexuality education, family planning services, and adoption services for all people, 219 regardless of income.

220 The Planned Parenthood Federation of America is the American affiliate of the International Planned Parenthood
221 Federation. The International Federation has member agencies in 149 nations. Planned Parenthood is the largest 222 provider of reproductive health care services in the United States.

223 Other organizations that are concerned about population issues and reproductive health care services include 224 Population Connection, Pathfinder International, and Population Action International.

- 225 The Sierra Club is one of the environmental protection organizations that is involved with population issues.
- 226 The Sierra Club's Global Population and Environment Program acknowledge the complex relationships that involve 227 humans, their health, and their environment. The Sierra Club is concerned about biodiversity issues and 228 sustainable development. It has expressed support for the Millennium Development Goals.
- 229 In 1991, the first edition of the Green Sanctuary handbook was published. The Green Sanctuary program is an 230 environmental action program for congregations. The program is managed by the Unitarian Universalist 231 Association's Congregational Stewardship Services department.
- 232 The Unitarian Universalist Animal Ministry affirms the inherent worth and dignity of all beings. The Unitarian 233 Universalist Ministry For Earth is involved with environmental justice projects in congregations and districts.
- 234 Same-gender couples often feel excluded from "family values" and family planning discussions. In most parts of 235 the world, marriage rights are denied to same-gender couples and it's difficult for same-gender partners to 236 establish a family with adopted children. Planning for retirement and elder care can be difficult for a same-gender
237 couple. Parents, Families, and Friends of Lesbians and Gays (PFLAG) works for marriage and adoption rights for 238 same-gender couples. The Family Equality Council assists lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender (LGBT) headed 239 families at all stages of life. The Human Rights Campaign is involved with civil rights issues.
- 240 Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender Ministries, a department of Multicultural Growth and Witness, serves the 241 Unitarian Universalist Association and its member congregations.
- 242 The Religious Institute has reviewed many of the sexuality-related policies and programs established by the 243 Unitarian Universalist Association. The Our Whole Lives (OWL) program is a joint program for sexuality education
244 developed by the Unitarian Universalist Association and the United Church of Christ.

Reproductive Justice: Expanding Our Social Justice Calling

245 Issue

246 Reproductive rights and health services are seriously under attack nationally. Reproductive Justice represents a 247 broader analysis of racial, economic, cultural, and structural constraints on women's power. The right to have 248 children, to not have children, and to parent children in safe and healthy environments is a human right.

249 Grounding in Unitarian Universalism

250 Unitarian Universalist's (UU's) have been on the frontline of women's reproductive rights and anti-racist work for 251 decades. The commitment to reproductive justice would reenergize that commitment, and pay attention to the 252 important intersections of race, class and gender. This work would be informed by the feminist theologians, 253 reproductive justice advocates, and UU's in the movement.

254 Topics for Congregational Study

- 255 • Why is focusing on individual choice inadequate?
- 256 • What is reproductive justice?
- 257 • How do power structures limit individuals' access to reproductive justice?
- 258 • What are the choices in birth?
- 259 • What moral questions does reproductive technology create?
- 260 • How does sexual assault and childhood sexual abuse contribute to unintended pregnancies later in life?
- 261 • How can eliminating racism, classism and sexism reduce the need for abortion and enable families to 262 care for the children they do have?
- 263 • How are pregnant women who use drugs stigmatized and what are the real dangers and solutions?
- 264 • How can transgendered individuals maintain their reproductive rights?
- 265 • How do economic justice and reproductive justice intersect?

266 Possible Congregational/District Actions

- 267 • Form a Reproductive Justice Committee.
- 268 • Join Sister Song as an ally member.
- 269 • Invite SisterSong to conduct reproductive justice training.
- 270 • Educate congregation on reproductive justice, choices in birth and other relevant issues, including 271 presenting a lay service on reproductive justice.
- 272 • Show films about reproductive justice.
- 273 • Present a reproductive justice workshop at district meetings.
- 274 • Advocate for legislative positions that foster reproductive justice.
- 275 • Give money to organizations that help women fund abortions.
- 276 • Create interfaith networks and committees.

CSAI 4 Exploring Class Barriers

320 Issue

321 Unitarian Universalists (UUs) have a reputation for being snobbish. Pursuing social justice, it is time for us to look 322 inward and study the barriers we create inhibiting people with modest income and/or education to feel included.

323 Grounding in Unitarian Universalism

324 Believing in the inherent worth of every person, we can find truth by inclusion of persons of all income and 325 educational statuses. Without that truth, UUs are limited in promoting peace, liberty and justice for all.

326 Topics for Congregational Study

- 327 • Class/Income/Education wise: who are we, who are we not?
- 328 • How can we use our discomfort in encountering someone of a higher or lower class/329 income/education in making persons of other class/income/education more comfortable?
- 330 • What assumptions do we make about income and education of others?
- 331 • Do we create barriers by our purchases and expressions of our income and education?
- 332 • How can we structure UU congregational activities to be more inclusive?
- 333 • What can the Unitarian Universalist Association (UUA) do to make General Assembly (GA) and other 334 UUA resources more inclusive?
- 335 • How does our choice of music and art express our class, income and education?
- 336 • How should we approach stewardship and fundraising to be inclusive?
- 337 • How will our class/income/education awareness inform our approach to social justice?

338 Possible Congregational/District Actions

339 To better understand others, get involved with them and their struggle:

- 340 • Remove economic barriers in using UU facilities. For example, host Alcoholic Anonymous (AA) meetings 341 and gatherings of public interest for free.
- 342 • Do social justice outreach within our community—get involved with other churches and schools to 343 stand in solidarity with low income persons. This might involve tutoring, providing school supplies,
344 serving community meals to needy people, and assisting families engaged with the criminal justice 345 system.
- 346 • Lobby local and state government to remove economic barriers to public resources.
- 347 • Lobby school boards to remove economic barriers in our school systems.
- 348 • Use Sunday services to educate the congregation what we've learned to combat insensitive expecta-349 tions of others.
- 350 • Alter our buildings, our services, our music and our artwork to appeal to a range of people.
- 351 • Consider ways we can structure UU and UUA to avoid charging fees—example, you have to buy
352 podcasts of GA workshops.

353 Related Prior Social Witness Statements

354 Although we have made many Statement of Conscience (SOC) concerned with Income, Race and Class (as in 2006 355 SOC), we have not really explored income and educational barriers to inclusiveness within UU. In searching the 356 words income, economic and class, we've been very concerned—about what the government and culture are 357 doing, but we've never had an SOC that specifically looked inward at who we are and how we relate to those of 358 lower class/income/education backgrounds.

CSAI 5 Ending Slavery

372 Issue

373 Modern slavery [see footnote 1.] is among the most pervasive human rights violations. Approximately 27 million
374 people worldwide [see footnote 2.] are enslaved, more than ever throughout history. Their stolen labor creates
375 products consumed every day [see footnote 3.] . However, this egregious violation is not inevitable [see footnote
376 4.] . We can finish the work begun by our abolitionist forebears [see footnote 5.] .

377 Grounding in Unitarian Universalism

378 Slavery is an affront to our principles, stripping people of their dignity and the worth of their labor. It is intrinsically
379 violent, unjust and degrading. Through our faith and history, we have affirmed that all people have inherent worth 380 and dignity, and that freedom is a fundamental right for everyone.

381 Topics for Congregational Study

- 382 • Slavery has been part of many cultures throughout history. Do you know your own family's ancestral 383 history? Were they enslaved? Were they slave holders? How does this impact how your feelings and 384 actions regarding slavery today [see footnote 6.] ?
- 385 • Many products we use every day are manufactured using slave labor [see footnote 7.] . How do our 386 culture and lifestyles contribute to allowing slavery to exist, and how can we change this?
- 387 • In America, slavery and human trafficking are often hidden in plain sight. We can all learn the warning
388 signs of slavery and trafficking. If you saw the warning signs of slavery what actions would you take and 389 who would you contact [see footnote 8.] ?
- 390 • Can you imagine the feeling of being emancipated? What does one need after experiencing 391 enslavement? Does emancipation alone eradicate the culture that allows for human enslavement?
- 392 • What are the local organizations or services in your area that support victims of trafficking and slavery?
- 393 • Many experts believe that we have never been closer to ending slavery [see footnote 9.] . What can you 394 do to end slavery?
- 395 • How does US foreign policy play a role in facilitating trafficking and slavery [see footnote 10.] ?
- 396 • How does our faith tradition's commitment to healthy sexuality impact our understanding of 397 commercial sex, sex trafficking, and the wellbeing of those involved in both systems?

398 Possible Congregational/District Action

- 399 • Most Americans are unaware of the prevalence of modern slavery. Contact other local faith leaders, 400 communities and local media to let them know your congregation is addressing modern slavery.
- 401 • Incorporate information about ending modern slavery via book discussions [see footnote 11.] , DVD 402 showings [see footnote 12.] for youth [see footnote 13.] and adults.
- 403 • Support local, national and international organizations that address societal level factors that 404 contribute to the enslavement of human being, including reducing poverty and empowering 405 marginalized groups.
- 406 • Purchase Fair Trade products at your congregation. Where Fair Trade options aren't available, urge 407 companies to take responsibility for labor practices in their product chains.
- 408 • Contact local law enforcement and other authorities to find out if they have policies, protocols, and 409 training in place.
- 410 • Look at the capitalistic system that allows for a culture where human beings can be rendered
411 disposable [see footnote 14.] .

412 Related Prior Social Witness Statements

413 The last time modern slavery was addressed as a General Resolution was in 1965 [see footnote 15.] and in 1967
414 [see footnote 16.] [see footnote 17.] . Modern slavery was also proposed as a study action area at the 2010 GA.

415 Footnotes

416 1. Experts in modern slavery define a slave as a person who is forced to work without pay beyond bare survival, 417 and who is not free to leave, either through violence or through threat of violence. See Free The Slaves or Anti-418 Slavery or any of the books referenced below.

419 2. Bitter Harvest, UU World, November/December, Kimberly French. See The Slave Next Door: Human trafficking
 420 and slavery in America today by Kevin Bales and Ron Soodalter (Berkeley; Univ. of California Press, 2009) or the FBI
 421 Human Trafficking website.

422 Additionally, in 2010 the United States was for the first time ranked in the Trafficking in Persons (TIP) Report with 423 the finding that within the US women, men, and children were forced into slavery through “forced labor, debt
 424 bondage, and forced prostitution.” The report ranks 177 countries based on “the extent of government action to 425 combat trafficking,” with Tier 1 as the highest ranking. A Tier 1 ranking indicates that a state government has 426 recognized the problem of human trafficking, has made efforts to address the issue, and meets the TVPA’s (Torture 427 Victim Protection Act) minimum standards. A country with a Tier 2 rating has not met the standards but has made
 428 efforts to do so, while a Tier 3 rating means the country has not met the minimum standards and has not 429 attempted to do so. The United States received a Tier 1 rating.

430 3. For example, Free the Slaves has a 25 year plan for ending slavery, detailed in Ending Slavery: How We Free
 431 Today’s Slaves by Kevin Bales (Berkeley; Univ of California Press, 2007).

432 4. There is a strong and vibrant movement to end slavery. Free the Slaves is an organization with a mission of 433 ending all forms of slavery globally through support of grassroots liberation and rehabilitation actions. Anti-Slavery
 434 International, based in the United Kingdom and founded in 1839, also works to eliminate all forms of slavery.
 435 There are also countless organizations that deal with specific regions or aspects of eliminating slavery, some of 436 which have a specific focus on putting our Unitarian Universalist (UU) principles into action.

437 The Unitarian Universalist Holdeen India Program works with key leaders and organizations of India’s most 438 marginalized and disadvantaged peoples in their struggle to secure human rights and economic and social justice.
 439 Part of their focus area is working to eliminate debt bondage in India. Shramajivee Mahila Samity, one of their 440 partner organizations, is the recipient of the 2009 Harriet Tubman award given to a community-based organization
 441 working to dismantle slavery. SMS goes undercover to expose traffickers, helps slavery survivors return home and 442 raises awareness within villages to slave-proof their communities.

443 The Unitarian Universalist Service Committee (UUSC) advances human rights and social justice in the United States
 444 and around the world. UUSC works by partnering with grassroots organizations, including those whose work
 445 prevents slavery. For example, one partner, the Rock Women’s Group, educates at-risk youth in Kenya who are 446 vulnerable to trafficking. UUSC also helps UU children throughout the country participate in Reverse Trick-or-447 Treating, which educates children about child and slave labor in the cocoa industry.

448 Unitarian Universalists Against Slavery is a small organization focused on educating the UU community about 449 slavery. It brought speakers to the 2003 General Assembly to speak about slavery. This organization is now 450 dormant.

451 5. Unitarians and Universalists have a strong history of opposing slavery. William Ellery Channing wrote a book
 452 entitled Slavery, where he stated that to enslave a person was an insult to God. He was accused of encouraging
 453 slave insurrection. Theodore Parker hid and defended fugitive slaves and was indicted for obstructing a federal 454 marshal for defending Anthony Burns, a fugitive slave in his congregation. A list of biographies of Abolitionists and 455 Civil Rights Unitarians and Universalists is available.

456 6. Resources for uncovering your family history with slavery are available from many sources. Some resources are 457 listed below:

 459 history as descendents of a wealthy slave trading family.

Proposed Bylaw Amendments

Underlining indicates insertion; brackets indicate deletion.

These Bylaw amendments broaden the definition of the word “congregation.” If these Bylaws are amended, corresponding Rules will be amended by the Board of Trustees. These proposed changes were given first-year approval at the 2011 General Assembly and, if approved this year, will change the bylaws.

The Mini-Assembly for this item is Thursday 3:15 pm - 4:30 pm in Room 121

Proposed Bylaw Amendments

Following the 2009 defeat of a proposal to amend Article II of the UUA Bylaws, the Principles and Purposes, General Assembly delegates passed a resolution calling on the UUA Board to review the bylaws that govern the amendment process. The proposed amendment to Article XV retains the current process for amending Article II, with a study commission followed by votes at two General Assemblies. However, the new process lets the first GA propose amendments to the study commission's Article II language using a Mini-Assembly process similar to the one used for many other business actions. These proposed changes were given first-year approval at the 2011 General Assembly and, if approved this year, will change the bylaws.

The Mini-Assembly for this item is Thursday 3:15 pm - 4:30 pm in Room 121

549 Article XV Amendment

550 Section C-15.1. Amendment of Bylaws.

551 (a) Amendments to Bylaws. These Bylaws may be amended by a two-thirds vote at 552 a regular General Assembly if a proposed amendment has been placed on the 553 agenda; provided, however, that proposals to amend[or], repeal, or add a new 554 section of these Bylaws whose section number is preceded by a "C" (hereinafter 555 a "C Bylaw")[, or to add a new such section,] shall be governed by subsections 556 (b) or (c) hereof.

557 (b) [(1)] Amendments to C Bylaws Other Than in Article II. A proposal to amend, 558 repeal or add a new C Bylaw, other than those C Bylaws in Article II of these 559 Bylaws, shall be subject to a two-step approval process.

560 (1) Such proposals must be placed on the agenda of a regular General
561 Assembly and approved preliminarily by a majority vote at such regular 562 General Assembly. Following such preliminary approval, the proposal to 563 amend, repeal or add a new C Bylaw shall be placed on the agenda of the 564 next regular General Assembly for final adoption. Final adoption shall 565 require a two-thirds vote.

566 (2) The text of a proposed amendment [to a C Bylaw, other than those 567 bylaws in Article II,] which has been approved by one General Assembly,
568 may be amended at any time prior to final adoption. If the Moderator 569 rules that the amendment to the proposal is substantive, final adoption 570 shall only be by a subsequent General Assembly~~[. Any]~~ except that any 571 such proposal that has been under consideration for final approval at 572 three successive regular General Assemblies shall not be subject to 573 substantive amendment and shall be submitted to a vote for final 574 approval at the third such regular General Assembly.

575 (3) Such a [A] proposal [to amend a C Bylaw, other than those Bylaws in 576 Article II,] which, on any vote for final adoption, receives a majority but 577 not a two-thirds vote, shall be placed on the agenda of the next regular 578 General Assembly, at which it may be finally adopted if it receives the 579 requisite approval. If the proposal is not passed by a two-thirds vote at 580 the third regular General Assembly at which it is considered for final 581 approval, neither the proposal nor another proposal that is substantively
582 similar shall be placed on the agenda of [a] the next regular General
583 Assembly [for two years].

584 (c) [(1)] Amendments to C Bylaws in Article II. A proposal to amend, repeal or 585 add a new C Bylaw in Article II of these Bylaws shall be [admitted to the] subject 586 to the following process.

(1) Such a proposal shall be admitted to the agenda of a regular General Assembly for the [sole] purpose of determining whether the proposal shall be referred to a commission appointed by the Board of Trustees for [review and] study. Such a [review] study shall involve member congregations. A majority vote at a regular General Assembly shall be required to refer such a proposal to the study commission. Once the [review and] study of the proposal is complete, which shall be completed in no more than [three] two years, the study commission shall submit to the [Planning Committee] Board of Trustees for inclusion on the agenda of the next regular General Assembly [following completion of the review and study process the proposal in the form originally presented to the regular General Assembly and] any amendments to [the proposal] Article II that the study commission recommends [as a result of the review and study process]. The Board of Trustees shall also include on the agenda any amendments that it recommends to the study commission proposal. [All proposals regarding Article II of the Bylaws that are placed on the agenda after review and study (including amendments to such proposals recommended by the study commission) shall require a two-thirds vote for adoption. If the proposal does not receive the requisite approval at the General Assembly following the completion of the review and study process, neither the proposal nor another proposal that is substantively similar shall be placed on the agenda of a General Assembly for two years.]

(2) A motion to dispense with the [review and] study process and give preliminary approval [with respect] to a proposal to amend, repeal or add a new C Bylaw in Article II shall be in order during [at] the General Assembly at which consideration of a motion to refer the proposal to the [review and] study process is authorized. A motion to dispense with the [review and] study process shall require a four-fifths vote for passage. Such a proposal shall then be placed on the agenda of the next regular General Assembly for final adoption without amendment. Final adoption shall require a two-thirds vote.

(3) [After completion of the review and study process, proposals regarding Article II of the Bylaws shall not be subject to substantive amendment. The Moderator shall determine whether an amendment to such a proposal is substantive.] At the first General Assembly following the completion of the study process, amendments to the Article II proposal may be considered only as follows:

(i) During the General Assembly there shall be a mini-assembly held during which amendments to the Article II proposal recommended by the study commission shall be considered.

(ii) A delegate may submit in writing at the mini-assembly an amendment to an Article II proposal. All such amendments shall be made available in writing to the General Assembly. The Moderator, in consultation with the chair of the study commission, the parliamentarian and legal counsel shall prioritize proposed amendments for consideration by the General Assembly. A majority vote of the General Assembly is required for approval of any amendment proposed in the mini-assembly.

Proposed Bylaw Amendments

- 637 (iii) Following the vote on any amendments proposed in the 638 mini-assembly, the General Assembly shall vote on any 639 amendments proposed by the Board of Trustees. A majority
640 vote is required to adopt such amendments. Following the vote
641 on all amendments, the General Assembly shall vote on
642 preliminary approval of the Article II proposal. A majority vote
643 is required for preliminary approval.
- 644 (iv) If no amendments proposed in the mini-assembly are 645 adopted by the General Assembly pursuant to subsection
646 (c)(3)(ii) above, the Article II proposal shall be submitted for 647 final approval to the next regular General Assembly. Final 648 approval requires a two-thirds vote of the General Assembly.
649 No amendments may be considered.
- 650 (v) If one or more amendments proposed in the mini-assembly
651 are adopted by the General Assembly, the Article II proposal
652 shall be referred to the study commission. Within six months
653 after the close of the General Assembly, the study commission, 654 taking into account the decisions of the General Assembly, shall 655 prepare the proposal to amend Article II. The Board of Trustees
656 shall put this proposal on the agenda of the next regular General
657 Assembly.
- 658 (4) At the next regular General Assembly following the process described in 659 subsection (c)(3)(v), above, the Article II proposal is subject to 660 amendment only by a three-fourths vote in favor of an amendment
661 submitted to the General Assembly in writing by the Board of Trustees, 662 a district, or a minimum of fifteen (15) certified congregations, as 663 described in Section 15.2 of these Bylaws. Final approval of the Article 664 II proposal requires a two-thirds vote of the General Assembly.
- 665 (5) If the Article II proposal does not receive the requisite approval at the 666 General Assembly following the completion of the study process
667 described in subsection (c)(3)(iv) or subsection (c)(4), above, neither the 668 proposal nor another proposal that is substantively similar shall be 669 placed on the agenda of the next regular General Assembly.
- 670 ([4]6) If no [review and] study process of Article II has occurred for a period of 671 fifteen years, the Board of Trustees shall appoint a commission to 672 [review and] study Article II for not more than two years and to 673 recommend appropriate revisions, if any, thereto to the Board of 674 Trustees[. The Board of Trustees shall review the recommendations of 675 the study commission and, in its discretion, may submit the 676 recommendations of the study commission to the Planning Committee]
677 for inclusion on the agenda of the next regular General Assembly. The 678 Board of Trustees shall also include on the agenda any amendments
679 that it recommends to the study commission proposal. Notwithstanding
680 anything to the contrary contained herein, proposals to amend Article II
681 which are promulgated by a study commission in accordance with this 682 paragraph shall be subject to a two-step approval process as described in 683 subsections (c)(3) and (c)(4), above. [Such proposals must be approved
684 preliminarily by a majority vote at a regular General Assembly.
685 Following such preliminary approval, the proposal shall be placed on 686 the agenda of the next regular General Assembly for final adoption.
687 Final adoption shall require a two-thirds vote.]

Motion from the Right Relationship Monitoring Committee for the UUA Board of Trustees meeting January 2012

Moved: That the following section entitled “Report from the Board on the Doctrine of Discovery” be added to the 2012 Board report to the congregations of our Association, that the responsive resolution that follows it be placed on the agenda for the 2012 General Assembly, and that both this section of our report and the resolution be sent out to congregations with the Tentative General Assembly Agenda.

Report from the Board on the Doctrine of Discovery

In September of 2011, the UUA Board was asked by partner organizations with whom the UUA is working in Arizona to educate UU congregations about the Doctrine of Discovery and to ask the delegates of the 2012 General Assembly to repudiate this doctrine. We believe that the Doctrine of Discovery, as conceived in the 15th century and enforced to this day in U.S. law, is contrary to Unitarian Universalist principles, theology and values. Because of this, we recommend to our member congregations that they engage in education about the Doctrine of Discovery and we endorse the repudiation of the Doctrine of Discovery by the 2012 General Assembly. We further endorse measures that will help the United States be in full compliance with the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous People, an agreement seen as reparative to the centuries of damage caused by the Doctrine of Discovery.

Background Information

The Doctrine of Discovery (DOD, also called the Doctrine of Christian Discovery) is a principle of law developed in a series of 15th century Papal bulls and 16th century charters by Christian European monarchs on the basis of which much of the rest of the world was explored and colonized by Europeans. It contained a theological justification of colonization that later became a nationalistic one. In an article in Yes! magazine, Gale Courey Toensing writes, “it was essentially a racist philosophy that gave white, Christian Europeans the green light to go forth and claim the lands and resources of non-Christian peoples and kill and enslave them—if other Christian Europeans had not yet already done so.”

For more than five centuries, the interpretive framework of the DOD has been institutionalized and used to assert a presumed right of dominance over originally free and independent indigenous peoples. The DOD was used by European nations to justify their conquest of Africa, Asia, Australia, New Zealand, and the Americas. It was the justification—theological and political—for the appropriation of the lands and resources of indigenous peoples and efforts to dominate native nations and undermine the sovereignty of indigenous nations and peoples. Among other things, it formed the basis for the slave trade, the partition and colonization of the Near East, the colonization of the Americas, and the genocides of the indigenous peoples of Africa and the Americas.

The DOD is the basis for United States policy regarding native peoples. After the American Revolution, the tenets of Christian Discovery were continued by the new United States. In the U.S. Supreme Court ruling in Johnson v. M’Intosh (1823), Chief Justice John Marshall wrote that “Christian people” who had “discovered” the lands of “heathens” had assumed the right of “ultimate dominion to be in themselves” and that this presumption of “dominion” had “diminished” the Indians’ rights to complete sovereignty as independent nations, and had resulted in the Indians having a mere right of occupancy to their lands. Unlike many regretful decisions of the past, this decision has never been overturned, and is still referred to in legal decisions on a regular basis (as recently as 2010 in the Federal courts).

The DOD is also foundational in the ways in which our nation’s policies on migration and immigration are formed and enforced. Preventing indigenous peoples from crossing the U.S.-Mexico border to inhabit lands that are historically theirs is justified in U.S. law by the DOD.

Report from the Board on the Doctrine of Discovery

The United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous People, overwhelmingly passed in 2007 after two decades of work, repudiates the DOD and calls upon the nations of the world to respect the land claims of their indigenous peoples and treaties made with indigenous peoples. It is a positive and comprehensive international human rights instrument addressing the economic, social, cultural, political spiritual and environmental rights of indigenous peoples. Among other things, it recognizes the right of indigenous peoples to migrate in their own lands, even when national borders have been drawn by colonial powers through them.

The United States is one of only four countries in the world that voted against the declaration (the others being Canada, Australia and New Zealand). Since then, all four have claimed to endorse the Declaration without taking steps to implement it. In the United States, the Declaration has not been submitted as a treaty to the Senate, giving it no force in law. While the rights addressed in the Declaration are similar to the rights guaranteed for other groups through other international human rights agreements that the United States has ratified and is implementing, none of these existing agreements extend rights of self-determination and equality to the indigenous peoples of this continent.

Indigenous peoples from around the world are asking all religious faiths and their respective national and international organizations to repudiate the Doctrine of Discovery and related documents, and to call for the United States to fully implement the U.N. Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples without qualifications. As the Declaration is described in its own preamble as “as a standard of achievement to be pursued in a spirit of partnership and mutual respect,” implementation of its standards needs to be done in accountable relationship with the indigenous peoples of our continent.

Unitarian Universalist Theologies and the DOD

The Unitarian and Universalist religious movements were born in the midst of revolution. “We the people” established the state and federal governments of the United States. The notion that human communities could be established on a democratic and intentional basis had a profound impact on our religious heritage. The American values of equality and justice were directly tied to the Universalist and Unitarian theologies that declared everyone equal in the eyes of God and possessing of sparks of divinity within.

But the United States did not come into being with an inclusive understanding of who constituted “we the people.” Women, People of Color, working people, people of diverse sexual and gender orientations still have to struggle for equity and inclusion. Unitarian Universalists have joined in these struggles. This work of equality and justice continues and there is much to do before our country can call itself inclusive, equitable and genuine in its commitment to justice for all.

Unitarian Universalists have long been guided by the radical notion that the truth will make us free. But we are not free of the past, our nation lives a lie, and our people are taught a history based in denial. A theology of mutuality and equality rather than of privilege and dominance means challenging ourselves to understand this history. The indigenous people of this land were conquered by vicious force and the land was taken from them. These actions were rationalized with the arrogant notion that the natives were savages and the invaders were civilizing Christians. The first people of this land have contributed much to our national culture, our food, our music, and most notably to our impatience with hierarchy and patriarchy. Benjamin Franklin credited the Haudenosaunee Confederacy for the idea that a federal union could be created out of self governing states. Yet these contributions are forgotten and even denied and it offends the presumption of white privilege to admit how much the nation has been influenced by People of Color.

Unitarian Universalist congregations covenant to affirm and promote “respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part”. This, our seventh principle, has profound theological implications. It calls us to a deeply rooted relationship with all that is, realizing that we belong to this world and that the world does not belong to us. Once we take this stance, we realize that the dominant culture of Europe and North America propagates a fundamentally different orientation, one based on exploiting our planet and using it for immediate gratification. We hear claims that the land is a “resource” and the people of the land should “be employed” for “productive purposes” by enterprising people of privilege and power. More and more people are learning that the world view of domination is profoundly alienating, estranging us from our essential human nature and from each other.

Unitarian Universalism is grounded in theologies that value relationship and reconciliation. We are taught that each of us has creative power that can be used to foster right relationship and build the beloved community. Conversely, that power can be used to dominate, oppress and harm others and make the beloved community that much further away from reality. 2010 Ware Lecturer Winona LaDuke, among others, teaches us that the continued domination of the indigenous people of North America is fundamentally in opposition to a theology of right relationship. By perpetuating centuries of injustice rooted in theologies of domination, we keep our culture alienated from the indigenous nations with whom we share the Earth.

There is a profound brokenness deeply embedded in our national identity that calls to us for healing and reconciliation. The Doctrine of Discovery is central to many painful legacies of American history, including the legacies of slavery, the forcible relocation and genocide of Native American peoples and the colonial partitioning of the continent. It is also central to the painful relationship that European-Americans have with their history. Healing is needed. We believe this resolution is a beginning step in the healing of this brokenness, a step toward restoring right relationship among the peoples of this land.

Why We Are Offering This Resolution at General Assembly 2012

This resolution has been placed on the General Assembly agenda in keeping with our charge to be accountable to migrant communities and partner organizations in Arizona. In preparing for General Assembly, some of the partner organizations with whom we are working in Arizona asked us specifically to take up this resolution.

Coalitions of indigenous peoples and their allies (including many Unitarian Universalists) have been working for many years to get religious groups to repudiate the DOD and to ask the United States to fully implement the tenets of the U.N. Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples. The Episcopal Church of the United States did so in 2009.

The DOD—and the legal ramifications of it to this day—have profound effects on the issues of migration, racial and economic justice, the focus issues of this Justice General Assembly. For example, laws restricting the migration of indigenous peoples across national borders are a direct consequence of a legal system that allowed European colonizers the right to draw those borders through the lands of others. The DOD is also central to the construction of the category of race—and thus the development of racism—in the Western world.

This resolution is being offered as a Responsive Resolution because the UUA By-Laws prevent us from making justice statements through normal business resolutions (and because the 2011 General Assembly passed by-law amendments to remove Actions of Immediate Witness from the General Assembly agenda in 2012). The Board feels that this is an issue that our congregations will need to study and discuss prior to General Assembly, so we are taking the unusual step of submitting it to you in advance for this consideration.

A Responsive Resolution to the Report of the Board

The Mini-Assembly for this item is Thursday 5:00 pm - 6:15 pm in Room 121

688 WHEREAS the delegates of the 2010 General Assembly instructed the UUA Board to create a “Justice
689 General Assembly” in 2012, whose business is accountable to partner organizations doing human rights
690 work in Arizona; and

691 WHEREAS the Unitarian Universalist Association has been asked by partner organizations working with 692 the Arizona Immigration Ministry to educate our member congregations about the Doctrine of Discovery 693 and to pass a resolution repudiating it; and

694 WHEREAS the UUA Board of Trustees has submitted to the member congregations a report explaining 695 the Doctrine of Discovery and why the Board believes it to be contrary to Unitarian Universalist 696 principles;

697 THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that we, the delegates of the 2012 General Assembly of the Unitarian
698 Universalist Association, repudiate the Doctrine of Discovery as a relic of colonialism, feudalism, and of 699 religious, cultural, and racial biases having no place in the modern day treatment of indigenous peoples
700 globally, and American Indians nationally; and

701 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we call on the leadership of the Unitarian Universalist Association to make 702 a clear and concise statement repudiating the Doctrine of Discovery and its current use in U.S. laws and 703 regulations, and

704 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we encourage other religious bodies to reject the use of the Doctrine of 705 Discovery to dominate indigenous peoples, and

706 BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED that we call upon the United States to fully implement the standards of the U.N.
707 Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples in U.S. law and policy without qualifications. In doing so,
708 we support the establishment of commissions that include accountable representatives of American Indian 709 nations.

Section C-1.1. Name.

The name of this Association shall be Unitarian Universalist Association. It is the successor to the American Unitarian Association, which was founded in 1825 and incorporated in 1847, 6 and the Universalist Church of America, which was founded in 1793 7 and incorporated in 1866.

ARTICLE II Principles and Purposes

Section C-2.1. Principles.

We, the member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist Association, covenant to affirm and promote

- The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
- Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;
- Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
- A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
- The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
- The goal of world community with peace, liberty and justice for all;
- Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

The living tradition which we share draws from many sources:

- Direct experience of that transcending mystery and wonder, affirmed in all cultures, which moves us to a renewal of the spirit and an openness to the forces which create and uphold life;
- Words and deeds of prophetic women and men which challenge us to confront powers and structures of evil with justice, compassion and the transforming power of love;
- Wisdom from the world's religions which inspires us in our ethical and spiritual life;
- Jewish and Christian teachings which call us to respond to God's love by loving our neighbors as ourselves;
- Humanist teachings which counsel us to heed the guidance of reason and the results of science, and warn us against idolatries of the mind and spirit;
- Spiritual teachings of Earth-centered traditions which celebrate the sacred circle of life and instruct us to live in harmony with the rhythms of nature.

Grateful for the religious pluralism which enriches and ennobles our faith, we are inspired to deepen our understanding and expand our vision. As free congregations we enter into this covenant, 42 promising to one another our mutual trust and support.

Section C-2.2. Purposes.

The Unitarian Universalist Association shall devote its resources to 45 and exercise its corporate powers for religious, educational and 46 humanitarian purposes. The primary purpose of the Association is 47 to serve the needs of its member congregations, organize new 48 congregations, extend and strengthen Unitarian Universalist 49 institutions and implement its principles.

Section C-2.3. Non-discrimination.

The Association declares and affirms its special responsibility, and 52 that of its member congregations and organizations, to promote the 53 full participation of persons in all of its and their activities and in the 54 full range of human endeavor without regard to race, ethnicity, 55 gender, disability, affectional or sexual orientation, age, language, 56 citizenship status, economic status, or national origin and without 57 requiring adherence to any particular interpretation of religion or to 58 any particular religious belief or creed.

Section C-2.4. Freedom of Belief.

Nothing herein shall be deemed to infringe upon the individual 60 freedom of belief which is inherent in the Unitarian and Unitarian 61 heritages or to conflict with any statement of purpose, covenant, or 62 bond of union used by any congregation unless such is used as a 63 creedal test.

ARTICLE III Membership

Section C-3.1. Member Congregations.

The Unitarian Universalist Association is a voluntary association of 67 autonomous, self-governing local churches and fellowships, 68 referred to herein as member congregations, which have freely 69 chosen to pursue common goals together.

Section C-3.2. Congregational Polity.

Nothing in these Bylaws shall be construed as infringing upon the 72 congregational polity or internal self-government of member 73 congregations, including the exclusive right of each such 74 congregation to call and ordain its own minister or ministers, and to 75 control its own property and funds. Any action by a member 76 congregation called for by these Bylaws shall be deemed to have 77 been taken if certified by an authorized officer of the congregation 78 as having been duly and regularly taken in accordance with its own 79 procedures and the laws which govern it.

1524 The President, Secretary, Recording Secretary, Treasurer, and 1525 Assistant Treasurer may sign and attest deeds, mortgages,
1526 contracts, and other documents to which the Association is a party.

1527 Section C-10.9. Pension System.

1528 The Association shall establish and maintain a pension system for 1529 ministers in full fellowship with the Association.

1530 Section 10.10. Fiscal Year.

1531 The fiscal year of the Association shall be from July 1 to June 30.

1532 Section C-10.11. Corporate Seal.

1533 The seal of the Association shall be in such form as the Board of 1534 Trustees shall approve.

1535 Section 10.12. Indemnification of Trustees, Officers,
1536 Employees, and Volunteers.

1537 The Association, to the extent legally permissible, shall indemnify
1538 any trustee, officer, employee of the Association or volunteer
1539 elected by a General Assembly or appointed by the Board of 1540 Trustees of the Association to serve the Association, or persons
1541 formerly holding such positions, against all liabilities and expenses 1542 (including court costs, attorney's fees, and the amount of any 1543 judgment or reasonable settlement, fines and penalties) actually 1544 and necessarily incurred by any such person, subsequent to the 1545 adoption hereof, in connection with the defense of any claim 1546 asserted or threatened to be asserted against any such person, or 1547 any action, suit or proceeding in which any such person may be 1548 involved as a party, by reason of being or having been such trustee, 1549 officer, employee or volunteer or by reason of any action alleged to 1550 have been taken or omitted by any such person as such trustee, 1551 officer, employee or volunteer, except with respect to any matter as 1552 to which he or she shall have been adjudicated in any proceeding
1553 not to have acted in good faith in the reasonable belief that his or 1554 her action was in the best interests of the Association provided,
1555 however, that as to any matter disposed of by a compromise
1556 payment by such person, pursuant to a consent decree or 1557 otherwise, no indemnification either for said payment or for any 1558 other expenses shall be provided unless such compromise and 1559 indemnification therefore shall be approved:

1560 (a) by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of disinterested
1561 trustees;

1562 (b) if such quorum cannot be obtained, then by a majority vote of 1563 a committee of the Board of Trustees consisting of all the 1564 disinterested trustees;

1565 (c) if there are not two or more disinterested trustees in office, 1566 then by a majority of the trustees then in office, provided they 1567 have obtained a written finding by independent legal counsel
1568 appointed by a majority of the trustees to the effect that,
1569 based upon a reasonable investigation of the relevant facts
1570 as described such opinion, the person to be indemnified
1571 appears to have acted in good faith and in the reasonable 1572 belief that his or her action was in the best interests of the 1573 Association;

1574 (d) if not resolved by (a), (b) or (c), above, by a court of 1575 competent jurisdiction.

1576 If authorized in the same manner specified above for compromise 1577 payments, expenses, including attorney's fees actually and 1578 necessarily incurred by any such person in connection with the 1579 defense or disposition of any such action, suit or other proceeding
1580 may be paid from time to time by the Association in advance of the 1581 final disposition thereof upon receipt of (a) an affidavit of such 1582 individual of his or her good faith belief that he or she has met the 1583 standard of conduct necessary for indemnification under this 1584 Section and (b) an undertaking by such individual to repay the 1585 amount so paid to the Association if such person shall be 1586 adjudicated to be not entitled to indemnification under this Section, 1587 which undertaking may be accepted without reference to the 1588 financial ability of such person to make repayment. The right of 1589 indemnification herein provided shall inure to the benefit of the 1590 heirs, executors and administrators of each such trustee, [or] officer, 1591 employee or volunteer and shall not be deemed exclusive of any 1592 other rights to which any such person may be entitled under any 1593 statute, bylaw, agreement, vote of members or otherwise or to

1594 which any such person might have been entitled were it not for this 1595 provision. As used in this Section, an "interested" trustee or officer 1596 is one against whom in such capacity the proceeding in question, or 1597 other proceeding on the same or similar grounds, is then pending.

1598 Section 10.13. Duties of the Audit Committee.

1599 The Audit Committee shall oversee the annual audit of the financial 1600 statements of the Association by an independent certified public
1601 accounting firm and monitor the establishment and implementation
1602 of accounting policies and internal controls. Specific duties of the 1603 Audit Committee shall be set forth in a charter adopted by the Board
1604 which may be amended by the Board from time to time.

1605 ARTICLE XI Ministry

1606 Section C-11.1. Ministerial Fellowship.

1607 Each member congregation has the exclusive right to call and 1608 ordain its own minister or ministers, but the Association has the 1609 exclusive right to admit ministers to ministerial fellowship with the 1610 Association. Fellowship may be for the purposes of parish, religious 1611 education and/or community ministry as determined by action of the 1612 Ministerial Fellowship Committee.

1613 No minister shall be required to subscribe to any particular creed,
1614 belief, or interpretation of religion in order to obtain and hold 1615 fellowship.

1616 Section 11.2. Ministerial Fellowship Committee.

1617 The Ministerial Fellowship Committee shall have exclusive
1618 jurisdiction over ministerial fellowship except as otherwise provided
1619 in these bylaws. It shall make rules governing ministerial fellowship, 1620 subject to the approval of the Board of Trustees.

1621 Section 11.3. Admission to Fellowship.

1622 A minister may be admitted to fellowship by the Ministerial
1623 Fellowship Committee, upon complying with the requirements of 1624 these Bylaws and the rules, policies, procedures and requests of 1625 the Committee. A minister who is admitted to fellowship shall be 1626 admitted to preliminary fellowship for a period of at least three 1627 years, be evaluated in ministry, and may thereafter be admitted to 1628 final fellowship.

1629 Section 11.4. Fellowship Records.

1630 The Executive Secretary of the Ministerial Fellowship Committee
1631 shall maintain up-to-date records of all ministers in fellowship with 1632 the Association. These records shall be available only to members
1633 of the committee, persons designated by the Committee, and, in 1634 cases of appeals, the Board of Review.

1635 Section 11.5. Termination of Fellowship and 1636 Administrative Suspension.

1637 The fellowship of a minister may be terminated by the Ministerial 1638 Fellowship Committee for unbecoming conduct, incompetence or 1639 other specified cause. Final fellowship may be terminated only after 1640 notice by the Committee and opportunity for a Fellowship Review
1641 before the Committee. During an investigation or the pending of a 1642 complaint, the Ministerial Fellowship Committee may suspend a 1643 minister until a final determination can be made on the minister's 1644 fellowship status.

1645 Section 11.6. Reinstatement to Fellowship.

1646 The Ministerial Fellowship Committee may reinstate in or readmit to 1647 fellowship a minister who has previously resigned from fellowship or 1648 whose fellowship has been suspended or terminated.

1649 Section 11.7. Appeal.

1650 A minister in final ministerial fellowship whose fellowship is 1651 terminated may appeal the determination of the Ministerial 1652 Fellowship Committee to the Board of Review. The Board of 1653 Review shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear and decide such

1655 Ministerial Fellowship Committee.

1656 Section 11.8. Procedure on Appeal.

1657 An appeal to the Board of Review may be heard by a panel of the 1658 Board selected as provided in its rules. The Board of Review or its 1659 panel hearing an appeal shall limit its review to an examination of 1660 the Ministerial Fellowship Committee's decision, and the information
1661 presented to the Committee, including the documents and other
1662 evidence compiled during the Fellowship Review, and the reasons
1663 articulated by the Ministerial Fellowship Committee for its decision
1664 terminating the minister's fellowship. If the minister requests
1665 consideration of newly discovered evidence, not previously
1666 presented to the Ministerial Fellowship Committee, then the matter
1667 shall be returned to the Ministerial Fellowship Committee for 1668 consideration of that evidence before the Board proceeds with the 1669 appeal. These Bylaws and the rules of the Ministerial Fellowship
1670 Committee shall be binding upon the Board of Review or its panel.
1671 The Ministerial Fellowship Committee's determination of fact and/or 1672 credibility will not be overturned unless no reasonable fact finder 1673 could have reached such determination, and disputes of fact are to 1674 be resolved in favor of the Ministerial Fellowship Committee's 1675 determination. The Board of Review or its panel may set aside the 1676 decision of the Ministerial Fellowship Committee only where 1677 necessary to correct or prevent manifest injustice. The Board of 1678 Review or its panel may remand the case in whole or in part to the 1679 Committee or take such other action as may be just. The Board of 1680 Review or its panel shall set forth its finding and conclusions and 1681 will serve upon the affected minister and the Ministerial Fellowship
1682 Committee. The decision shall be entered in the fellowship records
1683 and shall be final and binding upon all parties. No appeal shall be 1684 allowed from the decision of the Board of Review. The Board of 1685 Review shall make rules to carry out the intent of this section.

1686 ARTICLE XII Religious Education Credentialing

1687 Section 12.1. Religious Education Credentialing.

1688 Each member congregation has the exclusive right to employ its 1689 own religious educator, but the Association has the exclusive right
1690 to confer on religious educators a religious education credentialing
1691 status with the Association. No religious educator shall be required 1692 to subscribe to any particular creed, belief, or interpretation of 1693 religion in order to obtain and hold religious education credentialing 1694 status.

1695 Section 12.2. Religious Education Credentialing 1696 Committee.

1697 The Religious Education Credentialing Committee shall have 1698 exclusive jurisdiction over religious education credentialing except 1699 as otherwise provided herein. It shall make rules governing religious 1700 education credentialing, subject to the approval of the Board of 1701 Trustees.

1702 Section 12.3. Achievement of Religious Education 1703 Credentialing Status.

1704 A religious educator may achieve a religious education credentialing
1705 status by action of the Religious Education Credentialing
1706 Committee, upon complying with the requirements of these Bylaws
1707 and the rules, policies, procedures and requests of the committee.

1708 Section 12.4. Religious Education Credentialing Levels.

1709 The Religious Education Credentialing Committee shall adopt rules
1710 related to levels of religious education credentialing as follows:
1711 religious education credentialing includes Credentialed Religious 1712 Educator – Associate Level status, credentialed religious educator
1713 status, and Credentialed Religious Educator – Master Level status
1714 as determined by action of the Religious Education Credentialing
1715 Committee.

1716 Section 12.5. Religious Education Credentialing 1717 Records.

1718 The Executive Secretary of the Religious Education Credentialing
1719 Committee shall maintain up-to-date records of all religious 1720 educators who have achieved a status as a religious educator as 1721 described in Section 12.4 of these bylaws. These records shall be 1722 available only to members of the committee, persons designated by 1723 the Committee, and, in cases of appeals, the Board of Review.

1724 Section 12.6. Termination or Administrative Suspension 1725 of Religious Education Credentialing Status.

1726 The religious education credentialing status of a religious educator
1727 may be terminated by the Religious Education Credentialing
1728 Committee for unbecoming conduct, incompetence or other 1729 specified cause. Credentialing status may be terminated only after 1730 notice by the Committee and opportunity for a Religious Education
1731 Credentialing Status Review before the Committee. During an 1732 investigation or the pending of a complaint, the Religious Education
1733 Credentialing Committee may suspend a religious educator's
1734 credentialing status until a final determination can be made.

1735 Section 12.7. Reinstatement of Religious Education 1736 Credentialing Status.

1737 The Religious Education Credentialing Committee may reinstate in 1738 or readmit to religious education credentialing status a religious 1739 educator who has previously resigned from religious education
1740 credentialing status or whose religious education credentialing
1741 status has lapsed, been suspended or terminated.

1742 Section 12.8. Appeal.

1743 A religious educator with a religious education credentialing status 1744 whose status is terminated may appeal the determination of the 1745 Religious Education Credentialing Committee to the Board of 1746 Review. The Board of Review shall have exclusive jurisdiction to 1747 hear and decide such appeals. No other appeal shall be allowed
1748 from any decision of the Religious Education Credentialing
1749 Committee.

1750 Section 12.9. Procedure on Appeal.

1751 An appeal to the Board of Review shall be heard by a panel of the 1752 Board selected as provided in its rules. The Board of Review or its 1753 panel hearing an appeal shall limit its review to an examination of 1754 the Religious Education Credentialing Committee's decision,
1755 including the documents and other evidence compiled during the 1756 Religious Education Credentialing Status Review, and the reasons
1757 articulated by the Religious Education Credentialing Committee for 1758 its decision terminating the religious educator's credentialing status.
1759 If the religious educator requests consideration of newly discovered
1760 evidence, not previously presented to the Religious Education
1761 Credentialing Committee, then the matter shall be returned to the 1762 Religious Education Credentialing Committee for consideration of 1763 that evidence before the Board proceeds with the appeal. These 1764 Bylaws and the rules of the Religious Education Credentialing
1765 Committee shall be binding upon the Board of Review or its panel.
1766 The Religious Education Credentialing Committee's determination
1767 of fact and/or credibility will not be overturned unless no reasonable 1768 fact finder could have reached such determination, and disputes of 1769 fact are to be resolved in favor of the Religious Education
1770 Credentialing Committee's determination.

1771 The Board of Review or its panel may set aside the decision of the 1772 Religious Education Credentialing Committee only where necessary
1773 to correct or prevent manifest injustice. The Board of Review or its 1774 panel may remand the case in whole or part to the Religious 1775 Education Credentialing Committee or take such other action as 1776 may be just. The Board of Review or its panel shall set forth its 1777 finding and conclusions and shall be communicated to the affected
1778 religious educator and the Religious Education Credentialing
1779 Committee. The decision shall be entered in the religious education 1780 credentialing records and shall be final and binding upon all parties.
1781 No appeal shall be allowed from the decision of the Board of 1782 Review. The Board of Review shall make rules to carry out the 1783 intent of this section.

1784 ARTICLE XIII Regional Organizations

1785 Section C-13.1. Districts.

1786 The Association shall support areas of regional responsibility known 1787 as districts.

1788 Section C-13.2. Establishment.

1789 The establishment of districts and the manner of determining which 1790 congregations are included in each district shall be in accordance 1791 with rules adopted by the General Assembly.

1792 Section 13.3. Members.

1793 All member congregations of the Association located within the 1794 district shall be entitled to be member congregations of that district.

1795 Section C-13.4. Autonomy.

1796 Each district shall be autonomous and shall be controlled by its own 1797 member congregations to the extent consistent with the promotion of 1798 the welfare and interests of the Association as a whole and of its 1799 member congregations.

1800 Section 13.5. District Bylaws.

1801 Each district shall adopt bylaws which are not in conflict with these 1802 Bylaws.

1803 ARTICLE XIV Rules

1804 Section 14.1. Adoption and Amendment of Rules by 1805 General Assemblies.

1806 A General Assembly may adopt Rules not inconsistent with these 1807 Bylaws. Adoption or amendment of Rules by a General Assembly
1808 shall be by two-thirds vote. Each Rule adopted by a General
1809 Assembly shall be identified by a "G" preceding its Rule number. A 1810 General Assembly may amend or repeal Rules adopted by prior 1811 General Assemblies or by the Board of Trustees, if the proposed 1812 Rules or amendments have been placed on the agenda. Rules and 1813 amendments thereto shall be submitted for inclusion on the agenda
1814 in the same manner as other resolutions. The provisions of this 1815 Section 14.1 do not apply to the Rules of Procedure contemplated
1816 by Section 4.19.

1817 Section 14.2. Adoption and Amendment of Rules by the 1818 Board of Trustees.

1819 The Board of Trustees may adopt Rules not inconsistent with these 1820 Bylaws and with Rules adopted by General Assemblies and may 1821 amend or repeal its Rules.

1822 Section 14.3. Rules of Order.

1823 The Rules contained in the current edition of Robert's Rules of 1824 Order Newly Revised shall govern the Association in all cases to 1825 which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent
1826 with these Bylaws and any Rules that may be adopted hereunder.

1827 ARTICLE XV Amendment

1828 Section C-15.1. Amendment of Bylaws.

1829 (a) These Bylaws may be amended by a two-thirds vote at a
1830 regular General Assembly if a proposed amendment has 1831 been placed on the agenda; provided, however, that 1832 proposals to amend or repeal a section of these Bylaws
1833 whose section number is preceded by a "C" (hereinafter a "C 1834 Bylaw"), or to add a new such section, shall be governed by 1835 subsections (b) or (c) hereof.

1836 (b) (1) A proposal to amend, repeal or add a new C Bylaw, other 1837 than those C Bylaws in Article II of these Bylaws, shall be 1838 subject to a two-step approval process. Such proposals
1839 must be placed on the agenda of a regular General
1840 Assembly and approved preliminarily by a majority vote at 1841 such regular General Assembly. Following such 1842 preliminary approval, the proposal to amend, repeal or 1843 add a new C Bylaw shall be placed on the agenda of the 1844 next regular General Assembly for final adoption. Final 1845 adoption shall require a two-thirds vote.

1846 (2) The text of a proposed amendment to a C Bylaw, other
1847 than those bylaws in Article II, which has been approved

1848 by one General Assembly, may be amended at any time
 1849 prior to final adoption. If the Moderator rules that the 1850 amendment to the proposal is substantive, final adoption
 1851 shall only be by a subsequent General Assembly. Any 1852 such proposal that has been under consideration for final
 1853 approval at three successive regular General Assemblies
 1854 shall not be subject to substantive amendment at the third
 1855 such regular General Assembly.

1856 (3) A proposal to amend a C Bylaw, other than those Bylaws
 1857 in Article II, which on any vote for final adoption receives 1858 a majority but not a two-thirds vote, shall be placed on the 1859 agenda of the next regular General Assembly, at which it
 1860 may be finally adopted if it receives the requisite
 1861 approval. If the proposal is not passed by a two-thirds 1862 vote at the third regular General Assembly at which it is 1863 considered for final approval, neither the proposal nor 1864 another proposal that is substantively similar shall be 1865 placed on the agenda of a General Assembly for two 1866 years.

1867 (c) (1) A proposal to amend, repeal or add a new C Bylaw in 1868 Article II of these Bylaws shall be admitted to the agenda
 1869 of a regular General Assembly for the sole purpose of 1870 determining whether the proposal shall be referred to a 1871 commission appointed by the Board of Trustees for 1872 review and study. Such a review shall involve member
 1873 congregations. A majority vote at a regular General
 1874 Assembly shall be required to refer such a proposal to the 1875 study commission. Once the review and study of the 1876 proposal is complete, which shall be completed in no
 1877 more than three years, the study commission shall submit 1878 to the Planning Committee for inclusion on the agenda of 1879 the next regular General Assembly following completion
 1880 of the review and study process the proposal in the form
 1881 originally presented to the regular General Assembly and 1882 any amendments to the proposal that the study
 1883 commission recommends as a result of the review and 1884 study process. All proposals regarding Article II of the 1885 Bylaws that are placed on the agenda after review and 1886 study (including amendments to such proposals 1887 recommended by the study commission) shall require a 1888 two-thirds vote for adoption. If the proposal does not 1889 receive the requisite approval at the General Assembly
 1890 following the completion of the review and study process,
 1891 neither the proposal nor another proposal that is 1892 substantively similar shall be placed on the agenda of a
 1893 General Assembly for two years.

1894 (2) A motion to dispense with the review and study process
 1895 with respect to a proposal to amend Article II shall be in 1896 order at the General Assembly at which the review and 1897 study process is authorized. A motion to dispense with 1898 the review and study process shall require a four-fifths
 1899 vote for passage.

1900 (3) After completion of the review and study process,
 1901 proposals regarding Article II of the Bylaws shall not be 1902 subject to substantive amendment. The Moderator shall 1903 determine whether an amendment to such a proposal is 1904 substantive.

1905 (4) If no review and study process of Article II has occurred
 1906 for a period of fifteen years, the Board of Trustees shall 1907 appoint a commission to review and study Article II and to 1908 recommend appropriate revisions, if any, thereto to the 1909 Board of Trustees. The Board of Trustees shall review
 1910 the recommendations of the study commission and, in its 1911 discretion, may submit the recommendations of the study
 1912 commission to the Planning Committee for inclusion on 1913 the agenda of the next regular General Assembly.

 1914 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained
 1915 herein, proposals to amend Article II which are 1916 promulgated by a study commission in accordance with 1917 this paragraph shall be subject to a two-step approval
 1918 process. Such proposals must be approved preliminarily
 1919 by a majority vote at a regular General Assembly.
 1920 Following such preliminary approval, the proposal shall 1921 be placed on the agenda of the next regular General
 1922 Assembly for final adoption. Final adoption shall require 1923 a two-thirds vote.

1924 *Section 15.2. Submission of Proposed Amendment.

1925 Proposed amendments to these Bylaws may be submitted only by:

- 1926 (a) the Board of Trustees;
- 1927 (b) the General Assembly Planning Committee;
- 1928 (c) the Commission on Appraisal;
- 1929 (d) not less than fifteen certified member congregations by action 1930 of their governing boards or their congregations; such 1931 proposed amendments to Bylaws must be received by the 1932 Board of Trustees on February 1 whenever the regular 1933 General Assembly opens in June; otherwise, not less than 1934 110 days before the General Assembly; or
- 1935 (e) a district by official action at a duly called district meeting at 1936 which a quorum is present, such proposed amendment to be 1937 received by the Board of Trustees on February 1 whenever 1938 the regular General Assembly opens in June; otherwise, not 1939 less than 110 days before the next General Assembly.

1940 RULES* of theUNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST 1941 ASSOCIATION

1942 *Rules whose section number is preceded by a "G" are those

1946 RULE I Name

1947 No existing rules applicable to Article I.

1948 RULE II Principles and Purposes

1949 Rule G-2.1. Democratic Process.

1950 Because the Association is committed to the use of the democratic 1951 process, because its governing institutions are accountable to our 1952 congregations, because accessibility is critical to countering 1953 systemic and institutional oppression and because openness and 1954 trust are characteristics of a healthy religious community, the UUA
 1955 Board shall establish policies to allow for the maximum
 1956 transparency of its proceedings and of the proceedings of all UUA 1957 committees, commissions and task forces, consistent with their 1958 effective functioning. These policies shall include:

- 1959 (a) providing advance notice of dates and locations of regular 1960 business meetings, and making agendas, reports and 1961 minutes available promptly;
- 1962 (b) providing avenues for comment on issues on the 1963 meetings' agendas;
- 1964 (c) accommodating observers at regular business meetings,
 1965 with the exception of executive sessions.

 1967 Implementing this rule shall be the responsibility of the Board of 1968 Trustees. The Board shall designate a specific person or 1969 committee to whom comments about adherence to this rule may be

1970 addressed. The Board shall report to the General Assembly
1971 annually for the next three years on its implementation.

1978 purposes of the Association.

1979 Rule 3.3.2. Procedure for Admission.

1985 the Association and pledges itself to support the Association;

1994 as of the date of application.

1995 Rule 3.3.3. Membership Requirements for Admission.

1996 A new congregation, to be recognized as a member of the 1997 Association, must have thirty (30) of its adult members be members 1998 solely of the new congregation.

1999 Rule 3.3.4. Multiple Local Congregations.

2000 In many communities the liberal religious movement may be better 2001 served by the establishment of two or more member congregations.

- 2002 (a) It is ordinarily desirable that a new congregation should have 2003 the active support and sponsorship of any member
2004 congregation or congregations located in the same 2005 geographic area.
- 2006 (b) The Association will neither initiate nor recognize such a new 2007 congregation until after the Association has consulted by mail
2008 or by interview with any member congregation or 2009 congregations located in the same geographic area. Such 2010 consultation shall include a request for letters from the 2011 presiding officer of the congregation's governing board and 2012 minister of such congregation(s) stating judgment regarding 2013 the establishment and/or recognition of the new congregation.
2014 The Association may proceed to assist in organizing or 2015 recognizing the new congregation despite local protest or 2016 objection if the Association believes that such action is in the 2017 best interests of the entire movement and that it will 2018 strengthen the total Unitarian Universalist position in the 2019 community.

2020 Rule 3.3.5. Rules and Regulations for New 2021 Congregations.

2022 It is essential that Unitarian Universalist congregations be 2023 affirmative in spirit, inclusive in fellowship, and mutually supportive
2024 in their relationships with other congregations. The following 2025 statements represent the Association's best judgment as to the 2026 meaning of this general statement and shall be used by staff and 2027 the Board in determining action upon applications for membership.

- 2028 (a) In receiving the application of a new congregation for 2029 membership in the Association, the Congregational Services

2030 staff shall satisfy itself that the group is making its application
2031 in good faith and that it will make a sincere effort to carry out 2032 the purposes of the Association. (See specifically Article II of 2033 the Bylaws.)

- 2034 (b) The Association interprets its statements of purpose to mean 2035 that no congregation may be accepted into membership if its 2036 bylaws exclude from its local membership any person
2037 because of race, ethnicity, gender, disability, affectional or 2038 sexual orientation, language, citizenship status, economic 2039 status, or national origin.

- 2040 (c) All member congregations must be congregational in polity; 2041 the final authority to make decisions must be vested in the 2042 legal membership of the congregation.

- 2043 (d) Member congregations shall project and embark upon a
2044 balanced program of religious activity including adult worship
2045 and/or discussion and when feasible establishment of a 2046 church school in the Unitarian Universalist tradition.

- 2047 (e) New congregations are expected to establish and maintain 2048 cooperative relations with Unitarian Universalist agencies, as 2049 appropriate and feasible.

- 2050 (f) A congregation should be incorporated when possible under 2051 the laws of the state in which it exists. A congregation shall 2052 include in its articles of incorporation or other organizing
2053 documents a clause providing that the assets of the 2054 congregation will be transferred upon dissolution to the 2055 Association. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a congregation
2056 obtains the prior written consent of the Association's Board of 2057 Trustees, the congregation may name an organization that is 2058 affiliated with the Association (such as a district, camp, 2059 conference center or other congregation) as the recipient of 2060 the congregation's assets upon dissolution.

2061 Rule 3.3.6. Order of Administrative Procedure.

2062 The order of administrative procedure:

- 2063 (a) Application for congregational membership in the Association
2064 will first be referred to UUA staff.
- 2065 (b) UUA staff will seek information and advice with respect to all 2066 applications as follows:
 - 2067 U.S. Congregations – District President

2069 Unitarian or Universalist or Unitarian Universalist 2070 international group, if any.
- 2071 (c) UUA staff will make its recommendation to the President of 2072 the Association, and the President shall then make 2073 recommendations to the Board of Trustees of the UUA for its 2074 final action.

2075 Section C-3.5. Certification of Membership.

2076 Rule 3.5.1. Required Annual Report.

2077 In each fiscal year of the Association (July 1 to June 30), each
2078 member congregation shall file with the Secretary of the Association
2079 an Annual Report on the form and in the manner provided by the 2080 Association. The Annual Report shall include a certification by a 2081 minister or principal officer of the member congregation stating (a) 2082 whether or not the member congregation complied with the 2083 conditions set forth in Section C-3.5 of the Bylaws during the 2084 Association's prior fiscal year and (b) that the information provided 2085 to the Association in the Annual Report is true and correct to the 2086 best of the minister's or principal officer's knowledge.

2087 For purposes of determining compliance with Section C-3.5 of the 2088 Bylaws, a member congregation shall be deemed to have 2089 conducted 'regular religious services' if it has held at least 10
2090 services during the fiscal year.

 2095 opens in June and otherwise on or before the close of business on 2096 the last business day which is at least 110 days before the date of 2097 the General Assembly next following the close of that fiscal year. If 2098 a member congregation's related certification is not received by the 2099 applicable deadline, it will still be deemed timely filed if the member 2100 congregation submits to the Association proof that it was mailed in 2101 accordance with the provisions of Rule G-13.4.2. Such proof may 2102 be in the form of a stamped or validated receipt for Registered or 2103 Certified Mail or a sworn statement attesting to the proper
 2104 submission of the certification signed by the person responsible for 2105 its mailing.

2106 Rule 3.5.2. Inactive Congregations

2452 Congregational Study/Action Issues submitted by the certified 2453 member congregations districts, and sponsored organizations as 2454 defined in Section 4.12(a)(1), and the criteria which it used in 2455 selecting proposed Congregational Study/Action Issues included in 2456 the Congregational Poll. Each proposed Congregational
2457 Study/Action Issue that appears on the Tentative Agenda shall be

2458 accompanied by previous General Resolutions, actions and 2459 statements on related issues, with dates (if applicable), and the 2460 names or number of congregations submitting issues included
2461 within such proposed Congregational Study/Action Issue.

2462 Rule G-4.12.3 Report on Implementation of UUA
2463 Statements of Conscience.

2464 The UUA Administration shall report at each regular General
2465 Assembly regarding implementation of UUA Statements of 2466 Conscience with particular reference to the most recently adopted
2467 Statement of Conscience. Such report shall summarize 2468 implementation by member congregations, Districts, UUA staff and 2469 other Unitarian Universalist groups.

2470 Rule 4.12.4 Mini-Assembly on UUA Statement of 2471 Conscience

2472 During the regular General Assembly referred to in Section
2473 4.12(d)(1), a mini-assembly shall be held during which the proposed 2474 amendments to the revised UUA Statement of Conscience shall be 2475 accepted in writing. All such amendments shall be made available
2476 in writing to the General Assembly. The Commission on Social 2477 Witness shall finalize the UUA Statement of Conscience, and the 2478 chairperson of the Commission on Social Witness, in consultation
2479 with the moderator of the General Assembly, the parliamentarian 2480 and legal counsel, shall prioritize unincorporated amendments for 2481 consideration by the General Assembly.

2482 Section 4.16. Additions to the Agenda of Regular 2483 General Assemblies.

2484 Rule G-4.16.1. General Assembly Actions of Immediate 2485 Witness, and Responsive Resolutions.

2486 The Moderator shall take such steps as the Moderator considers 2487 practical to advise delegates and other persons or bodies as early 2488 as possible, preferably in writing, of the contents of any actions or 2489 resolutions presented to the General Assembly which are not on the 2490 Final Agenda and which are admitted to the agenda pursuant to 2491 Article IV, Section 4.16 of the Bylaws; and some time shall be 2492 scheduled when the sponsor(s) of the action(s) or resolution(s) can 2493 discuss the action or resolution with those interested.

2494 Section 4.18. Agenda Rules.

2495 Rule G-4.18.1. Notice to Member Congregations and 2496 Districts.

2497 By November 1 whenever in the fiscal year the General Assembly
2498 opens in June, otherwise not less than two hundred and ten days
2499 before each regular General Assembly, each certified member
2500 congregation and district shall be notified of the dates for submitting 2501 items for the Tentative and Final Agenda, the procedure to be 2502 followed, and the forms to be used.

2503 Rule G-4.18.2. Business Resolutions and Study/Action
2504 Issues for Social Justice.

2505 A Study/Action Issue for Social Justice is one that deals with issues
2506 of public policy within the province of the Department of Faith in 2507 Action. A Business Resolution directly involves the administration
2508 and structure of the Association.

2509 Any resolution submitted which, taken as a whole, has as its 2510 purpose the making of a statement of social concern or principle
2511 shall be deemed to be a Study/Action Issue for Social Justice.

2512 A Study/Action Issue for Social Justice or a UUA Statement of 2513 Conscience appearing on the Final Agenda shall not be amended
2514 so as to become a Business Resolution.

2515 Rule G-4.18.3. Congregational Poll.

2516 At the time of the mailing of the Tentative Agenda each certified
2517 member congregation shall be requested to report by February 1, 2518 on a form provided whether it recommends or does not recommend 2519 for action by the General Assembly the Business Resolutions,

2520 proposed Congregational Study/Action Issues in the first Cycle
2521 year, and draft UUA Statements of Conscience in the Fourth Cycle
2522 year, or any additional years thereto pursuant to Section 4.12(d)(2)
2523 appearing on the Tentative Agenda, including the alternative
2524 versions of Business Resolutions (if any) submitted by the Board of 2525 Trustees. The recommendation with respect to each proposed 2526 resolution or issue must be certified by the minister, clerk or 2527 president of that congregation as being within the procedures of that 2528 congregation. Only a Business Resolution which a majority of the 2529 congregations voting on the resolution recommends for the action
2530 shall be eligible to be included on the Final Agenda from the 2531 Congregational Poll. If there is more than one version of a 2532 Business Resolution on the Tentative Agenda, the subject of the 2533 resolution shall be considered a single item on the Tentative
2534 Agenda and the Congregational Poll. All versions shall be listed
2535 consecutively within that item. An aye vote by a congregation for 2536 one or more versions shall be counted an aye vote for inclusion of a 2537 resolution on the subject in the Final Agenda. If support for the 2538 subject matter of the resolution is sufficient to make it eligible for 2539 inclusion on the Final Agenda, the version that receives the highest 2540 number of votes by the participating congregations shall be the one
2541 eligible for inclusion on the Final Agenda. From the Business
2542 Resolutions eligible from the Congregational Poll, the Board of 2543 Trustees shall include on the Final Agenda not more than the eight 2544 Business Resolutions receiving the highest number of 2545 "recommended for action" votes on the Congregational Poll. The 2546 Board of Trustees may also include on the Final Agenda alternative 2547 versions of Business Resolutions which are germane to those 2548 selected through the Congregational Poll. In the first Cycle year, 2549 the Board of Trustees also shall include on the Final Agenda not 2550 more than the five proposed Congregational Study/Action Issues 2551 receiving a majority of votes and the highest number of 2552 "recommended for action" votes on the Congregational Directives
2553 for General Assembly Action, provided that at least twenty-five 2554 percent (25%) of the congregations participated in the ballot vote for 2555 such proposed Congregational Study/Action Issues. If the number 2556 of proposed Congregational Study/Action Issues recommended for 2557 action in the Congregational Poll exceeds five and there is more 2558 than one such issue in fifth position as a result of a tie vote, all 2559 issues in fifth position shall be referred to the Final Agenda by the 2560 Commission on Social Witness. In the fourth Cycle year, or any 2561 additional years thereto pursuant to Section 4.12(d)(2), the Board of 2562 Trustees shall further include on the Final Agenda a proposed UUA
2563 Statement of Conscience, provided that at least twenty-five percent 2564 (25%) of the congregations participated in the ballot vote for such 2565 draft UUA Statement of Conscience. A report of the vote by which 2566 each resolution on the Tentative Agenda was or was not 2567 "recommended for action" shall be included on the Final Agenda.
2568 All Business Resolutions that are included on the Final Agenda
2569 shall be discussed during the General Assembly in a mini-
2570 assembly.

2571 Rule 4.18.4. Matters Submitted by Districts

2572 In the event that a proposed amendment to a Rule or to a Business
2573 Resolution that was submitted by a district is to be considered at a 2574 General Assembly, the district that submitted the proposed
2575 amendment or resolution may, in accordance with its own
2576 procedures, designate a representative to speak in support of the 2577 amendment or resolution at the General Assembly. The 2578 representative must be provided by the district with a certification of 2579 the representative's appointment signed by an officer of the district.

2580 Section 4.19. Rules of Procedure.

2581 Rule G-4.19.1. Adoption of Rules of Procedure.

2582 The Board of Trustees shall offer rules of procedure for adoption at 2583 the first session of each General Assembly.

Section 6.6. Qualifications of Trustees.

Rule 6.6.1. Multiple Memberships.

For purposes of applying the Bylaw provision that no more than one trustee shall be a member of the same member congregation, a person holding membership in more than one member congregation shall be treated as being a member only of that member congregation whose services such person most regularly attends. The Secretary shall make any determinations required by this rule, subject to appeal to the Board of Trustees, with the affected trustee or trustees not voting.

Rule 6.6.2. Implementation of Section 6.6.

If at the close of a General Assembly election, the results are such that, except for the provisions of Section 6.6, more than one person from the same congregation would serve at the same time on the Board of Trustees,

(a) if the conflict arises solely from the election just held the Secretary of the Association shall thereupon declare that the persons so elected are disqualified and that the offices to which they have been so elected are vacant and are to be filled as provided in the Bylaws.

(b) if the conflict arises because one person from a congregation is already serving on the Board of Trustees and another person from that congregation has just been so elected the Secretary of the Association shall declare that the person just elected is disqualified and the office to which such person has been elected is vacant and that the vacancy is to be filled as provided in the Bylaws.

RULE VII Committees of the Board of Trustees

No existing rules applicable to Article VII.

RULE VIII Officers of the Association

Section 8.1. Officers Enumerated.

Rule 8.1.1. Officers Enumerated.

The appointed salaried officers of the Association shall include an Executive Vice President.

Section 8.11. Executive Vice President.

Rule 8.11.1. Executive Vice President.

The members serving without pay on the Ministerial Fellowship Committee, Finance Committee, and Investment Committees are designated as officers of the Association for the purposes, only, of carrying out their duties as members of such committees. The powers and duties of such members are as defined in the Bylaws, Rules, and Policies adopted by the Board of Trustees.

RULE IX Nominations and Elections

Section 9.10. Counting of Ballots.

Rule G-9.10.1. Tie Votes.

Except in the election of a President, if a tie vote occurs in filling an office when only one person is to be elected, or occurs in filling a slate of officers when the slate cannot be completed without resolving the tie, then as soon as possible before the final adjournment of the General Assembly involved, additional ballots shall be cast by those present and entitled to vote, except that initially the Moderator shall not vote. The additional ballots shall contain only the names of the candidates who are tied. These ballots shall be counted along with a recounting of the ballots cast for the tied candidates by absentee ballots, and the result of the foregoing procedures shall determine the election, unless there is still a tie, in which case the Moderator shall then cast a ballot to resolve it.

Rule G-9.10.2. Tie Vote-Moderator.

If the tie involves the election of a Moderator, the proceedings to resolve the tie shall be presided over by the Secretary of the Association who in all matters involving the resolutions of the tie shall have the rights and duties of the Moderator.

Rule G-9.10.3. Tie Vote-President.

If, in the election of a President, in any particular counting of the preferential ballots, including absentee ballots, there is a tie vote among candidates having the least number of votes, then each such tied candidate shall be eliminated, and in the next counting, the ballots accumulated for said candidate shall be redistributed among the remaining candidates on the basis of the highest effective preferences marked on all the ballots that have been cast. However, if in this process, such elimination leaves only a single candidate who in that counting still does not have a majority of the counted votes, or if only two candidates remain in the contest and they are tied, then there shall be as many run-off election procedures, conducted under the provision of Rule G-9.10.1 as are necessary to result in the election of a President by at least a majority of the votes cast.

Section 9.12. Rules for Nominations and Elections.

Rule G-9.12.1. Preparation and Mailing of Ballot.

Unless no ballot is required according to Section 9.9(a), prior to each regular General Assembly at which an election is to be held, the Secretary shall prepare ballots upon which shall appear the names of all persons who have been nominated for office in accordance with these Bylaws. One such ballot shall be sent with each credential card issued by the Secretary.

Rule G-9.12.2. Order of Names on Ballot.

On all ballots used in elections held by the Association the order of names shall be determined by the drawing of lots done by the Secretary and witnessed by two other persons. The Secretary shall

2697 certify the results of the drawing of lots, the certificate shall be 2698 attested by the witnesses, and the certificate shall be filed in the 2699 Secretary's office. This Rule shall be printed on all official ballots or 2700 on the instructions accompanying them.

2701 Rule G-9.12.3. Write-ins Prohibited.

2702 In any election, the use of stickers or the writing in of the name of 2703 any person on a ballot shall not be permitted and no vote so
2704 attempted shall be counted.

2705 Rule G-9.12.4. Absentee Ballots.

2706 An absentee ballot shall be counted only if accompanied by the 2707 signed and certified ballot stub of the credential card of the person 2708 casting the ballot.

2709 Rule G-9.12.5. Balloting at General Assembly.

2710 A person shall be qualified to cast a ballot at General Assembly only 2711 if that person presents to the Secretary of the Association or those 2712 employed by him or her at the polls a properly certified ballot stub
2713 plus a badge issued to that person and containing the same name
2714 as the name on the ballot stub.

2715 Rule G-9.12.6. Campaigns for Elective Office.

2716 Each candidate for an at-large elective position may submit to the 2717 Association a campaign statement. The Association will post
2718 electronically the statements of all candidates. Notice of the posting 2719 shall be distributed to the congregations with the absentee
2720 ballots and electronically, and to the delegates as a part of the final 2721 agenda.

2722 Rule G-9.12.7. Length of Campaigns for President and 2723 Moderator.

2724 (a) Campaigns for President and Moderator may appropriately

2727 of the second year preceding the election.

2728 (b) Active campaigning and solicitation of endorsements shall not 2729 begin prior to January 1 of the year preceding these elections.

2730 (c) No electioneering (defined as publicly announced meetings, 2731 rallies or exploratory events) of any sort shall occur at the 2732 General Assembly two years preceding the elections for 2733 President and Moderator. Private meetings about campaign
2734 organization that take place outside of General Assembly-

2737 All candidates for at-large elective positions shall keep detailed and 2738 accurate records of:

2739 (a) their campaign expenses (stated in United States dollars) by 2740 categories of travel, postage, telephone, printing and other
2741 such categories as seem appropriate;

2742 (b) the number of contributors to their campaigns, including the 2743 number of contributors in each of the following categories:

- 2748 (5) over $500.00, and

2749 (c) the number of contributions and the total amount of 2750 contributions received from each group or organization
2751 supporting the campaign.

2752 No candidate for any elective position shall solicit or knowingly 2753 accept any contribution that is given through a tax-exempt entity
2754 with the purpose of conferring tax-exempt status to the contribution
2755 to which it would not otherwise be entitled. Such exempt entities

2756 include but are not limited to member congregations, associate 2757 member organizations and independent UUA affiliates.

2758 The names of contributors shall be disclosed. Each such report
2759 shall identify by name any member congregation, associate 2760 member organization or independent affiliate of the Association and 2761 any other tax exempt organization (including specifically, but without 2762 limitation to, any minister's discretionary fund or similar account) 2763 that has made any contribution to the campaign and shall state the 2764 amount of each such contribution. Such reports shall be filed with 2765 the Secretary of the Association. A preliminary report shall be due 2766 at the close of the first day of the regular General Assembly at 2767 which the election occurs. A final report shall be due 60 days
2768 thereafter. The Secretary shall upon written request from a member 2769 of a member congregation furnish such information from these 2770 reports as requested. These reports shall be made available for 2771 inspection by any member of a member congregation at the 2772 principal offices of the Association and shall be brought by the 2773 Secretary to the next General Assembly and made available for 2774 inspection there by any delegate.

2776 of Official Business.

2777 (a) When running for office, candidates shall be prohibited from 2778 engaging in any electioneering or campaigning during the 2779 conduct of official business of the Unitarian Universalist
2780 Association.

2781 (b) Financial accounting and bookkeeping procedures shall be 2782 established which make it explicit that no monies of the 2783 Association were used in the financing of a candidate's
2784 campaigning or electioneering activities.

2785 Rule G-9.12.10 Election Campaign Practices
2786 Committee.

2787 (a) An Election Campaign Practices Committee is hereby 2788 established and shall consist of three persons to be appointed
2789 by the Board of Trustees at its October meeting following
2790 those regular General Assemblies at which elections occur.
2791 Two members of the Committee shall be members of the 2792 Board of Trustees at the time of their appointment and one 2793 shall be a non-Board member. The non-Board member shall 2794 be the chair of the Committee. Persons appointed to the 2795 Election Campaign Practices Committee shall remain neutral

2804 nomination by the nominating committee or receipt of 2805 petition;
- 2806 (2) to receive and consider written complaints of alleged 2807 violations of such guidelines or rules; if the committee
2808 finds probable cause to establish that a violation exists, 2809 to notify a candidate or a number of candidates how 2810 they may voluntarily comply with guidelines or rules and 2811 how long they have to do so; to attempt to mediate
2812 disputes arising from such complaints; and, if no
2813 satisfactory resolution of a complaint is achieved, to 2814 adjudicate the dispute and report the adjudication in 2815 writing to the candidates affected;
- 2816 (3) to hold such hearings as may, at the Committee's 2817 discretion, be necessary or desirable to carry out the 2818 intent of subsection 2 above; and

2819 (4) to report on its activities and any recommendations it
2820 may have to the Board of Trustees at its October
2821 meeting following the elections.

2822 (c) If compliance to an adjudicated decision is not implemented
2823 by the stated deadline, the Committee is authorized to block
2824 or remove Association-subsidized privileges from the 2825 candidate's campaign.

2826 Candidates adjudicated to be in serious violation of Rule
2827 G-9.12.6(c) may have their names removed from the ballot. Any 2828 such action pursuant to rule G-9.12.10(c) shall be reported to the 2829 Board and the General Assembly. Such adjudication by the ECPC
2830 would be subject to automatic review by the Board Executive 2831 Committee according to the provisions of Rule G-9.12.10(d).

2832 (d) Any candidate aggrieved by the Committee's adjudication may,
2833 within ten days of the mailing of the adjudication, appeal in 2834 writing to the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees,
2835 which shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine
2836 such an appeal. The Executive Committee shall report its 2837 decision on the appeal in writing to the affected candidates as 2838 expeditiously as feasible. The Executive Committee of the 2839 Board of Trustees is authorized to issue any order or ruling it
2840 deems appropriate in connection with such a decision.

2841 (e) Any member of the Executive Committee of the Board of 2842 Trustees who is a candidate for UUA elective office shall not 2843 participate in any manner in the determination of any appeal
2844 from an adjudication of the Election Campaign Practices
2845 Committee.

Greening GA: Values into Action

It's not easy integrating justice into planning General Assembly. But year after year UUA takes steady, practical steps forward to plan General Assembly in ways that support people and planet.

* Do what is right, fair and ethical

- Caterers have been provided with UUA's Ethical Eating: Food and Environmental Justice Statement of Conscience to assist with menu planning and food sourcing.
- UUA specifically requests fairly traded, locally grown, certified organic and vegan and vegetarian options to be provided during GA.
- Hotels and venues are contracted to follow 'green' guestroom guidelines.
- All other suppliers for GA – including our decorator, audio visual company and transportation providers - are required to have sustainability policies and purchasing guidelines and agree to abide by sustainable event practices.

* Do better every time.

- After 7 years of measurement, GA's carbon footprint reached an all-time low of 709 lbs of carbon dioxide per person in 2011 – a huge reduction from 1616 lbs per attendee in 2007. UU's also voluntarily offset a record-setting 63% of event emissions last year!
- In 2011 UUA attendees increased the Charlotte Convention Center's diversion from landfill rate by 38%. Each attendee produced approximately half a pound of waste per person, down from six pounds per person in 2008!

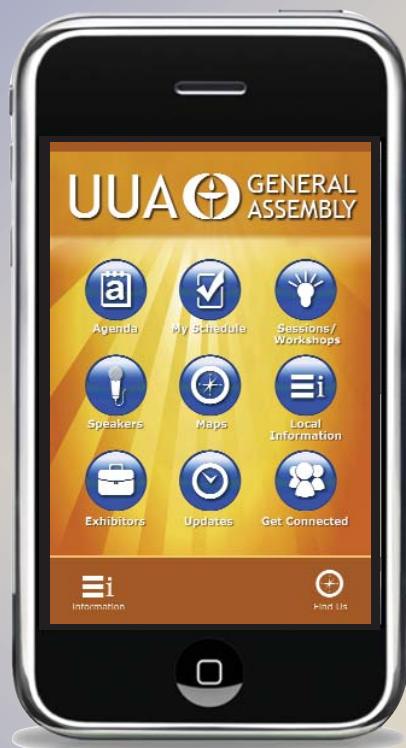

* Ask others to join you.

- Reduce! Bring your own coffee mug. Pass on the daily paper if you don't need it. Support local green hotels by re-using your towels – this can save 14 gallons of water per night! And don't forget to turn off the lights when you leave your room.
- Recycle! Our goal for General Assembly is to exceed 50% diversion from landfill. Help us meet our goal by using the recycling stations provided. We have a four-stream recycling program:
 - Comingled Recyclables – aluminum, plastic bottles, glass, paper, cardboard.
 - Biodegradables/Compostables - Plates, flatware (forks, knives, spoons), coffee cups (no lids), drinking cups, napkins, stirrers.
 - Food scraps – all left over food scrapings by attendees.
 - Trash – anything that is not accepted in the above.

- Move Green! Valley Metro has regular train and bus connections around the region. Check the local information desk for schedules and fares.
- Offset your Travel! UUA is partnering to provide a carbon offset program for General Assembly to be accountable for emissions we can't avoid. Thanks to you, our program has the highest voluntary participation rate of any event Carbon Fund partners in! You can offset your emissions when you register, or by visiting www.carbonfund.org.
